QUARTERBACKS

Georgia enters the spring with a quarterback corps who has a combined one start in their collegiate careers. Redshirt junior Gunner Stockton got the nod versus Notre Dame in the College Football Playoff Quarterfinal Allstate Sugar Bowl after helping to lead the Bulldogs past Texas in the SEC Championship Game. Stockton filled in for starter Carson Beck when he got injured against the Longhorns. Seeing action in five games last year, Stockton finished the year 45-for-64 (70.3 percent) with one touchdown and an interception. Redshirt freshman Ryan Puglisi is expected to battle Stockton in camp as early enrollees Hezekiah Millender, who attended Clarke Central HS in Athens, and Ryan Montgomery (Findlay, Ohio) will get snaps in the spring as well, though Montgomery will be limited in the spring as he recovers from knee surgery.

RUNNING BACKS

The Bulldogs have six running backs returning, highlighted by 2024 SEC Freshman All-SEC selection Nate Frazier. Frazier played in 13 of 14 games and had three starts en route to a team-high 671 yards on 133 carries (5.0 avg.). Recording eight touchdowns on the ground, he added 12 catches for 85 yards in his first season. Versatile senior Cash Jones also returns after snagging 24 catches for 275 yards and four touchdowns. While redshirt junior Branson Robinson and redshirt sophomore Roderick Robinson II will also be in the mix following injury shortened seasons, a pair of second-year players will be looking for larger roles. Sophomore Dwight Phillips, Jr. will be bringing his blazing speed back to the lineup and redshirt freshman Chauncey Bowens is aiming at playing a bigger role in this year's offense. Georgia also will have early enrollee Bo Walker in the backfield after he went for more than 4,000 yards and 47 touchdowns during his prep career.

TIGHT ENDS

Senior Oscar Delp and junior Lawson Luckie lead a Bulldog tight end room that has a reputation for producing recently NFL products. Delp came on late in 2024, finishing with 21 catches for 248 yards and four scores after starting 10 games. Luckie was right behind his teammate with 24-348-3 and seven starts. In addition, the Georgia faithful is eager to see the development of Jaden Reddell and Colton Heinrich, who both started their career last season. Georgia also welcomed in two of the nation's top tight end prospects in Ethan Barbour and Elyiss Williams to start the semester. Williams, a 6-foot-7, 240-pound product of Kingsland, Ga., was considered the nation's No. 1 prospect at his position after hauling in 54 catches for 789 yards and 11 scores. Barbour shredded in-state high school defenses 39 receptions for a similar 789 yards and 10 touchdowns for Milton HS.

Tight end Oscar Delp returns for his senior season as the leader of one of the nation's top tight end rooms.

Quarterback Gunner Stockton helped Georgia win the SEC Championship Game in relief before making his first career start in the Sugar Bowl CFP Quarterfinal.

WIDE RECEIVERS

While Georgia's top two receivers from 2024 in Dominic Lovett and Arian Smith are preparing for the NFL Draft this spring, the Bulldogs' cupboard still has an array of talented options going into next season. Senior Dillon Bell, who also had more than 100 yards and a touchdown on the ground last year, started 12 games in 2024 and finished with 43 catches for 466 yards and four touchdowns. Returning alongside Bell will be Vanderbilt transfer London Humphreys, who had 15-244-2 in his first year with the Bulldogs in 2024. Cole Speer, Nitro Tuggle and Sacovie White will also don the Red and Black again in 2025 as Speer targets a strong senior season and Tuggle and White aim to further develop in year two. Georgia's lineup will also be bolstered by former USC receiver Zachariah Branch and Texas A&M transfer Noah Thomas joining James Coley's room. UGA bulked its corps with the addition of four early enrollee receivers – Landon Roldan, Talyn Taylor, CJ Wiley and Tyler Williams. Taylor, a native of Geneva, Ill., is the top-ranked pass catcher of the bunch coming out of high school after going for 84-1,617-24 as a senior.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

One hundred and three combined starts demonstrate what sort of experience left the Bulldogs on the line with the departure of Dylan Fairchild, Tate Ratledge and Xavier Truss to their NFL training. In addition, one of the top centers on the League's board is Jared Wilson, who started 12 of 14 games in his sole season as Georgia's starting center in 2024. Redshirt juniors Drew Bobo, who started the other two games in front of the quarterback in 2024, and Earnest Greene, III will be the foundation of this year's line. Fifth-year senior Micah Morris, who had five starts of his own at guard last season, will likely be called on as another of Georgia's leaders in the coming campaign. More experience comes from rising junior Monroe Freeling, who played in all 14 games last season and started the final five for the injured Greene. An array of redshirt freshmen and sophomores, including Malachi Toliver, Michael Uini, Bo Hughley, Marques Easley, Jahzare Jackson, Jamal Meriweather, Daniel Calhoun, Marcus Harrison and Nyier Daniels are now battling to make the transition to every Saturday players. Similar to a load of early enrollees in 2024, four linemen – Juan Gaston, Mason Short, Cortez Smith and Dennis Uzochukwu – arrived in Athens in January and are also training to get their shot in the rotation.

Inside linebacker CJ Allen ranked second on the team with 76 stops during the 2024 season.

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

Similar to the offensive line, Georgia will be replacing a host of seasoned veterans who are readying for the Draft. Now that Mykel Williams, Nazir Stackhouse, Warren Brinson and Tyrion Ingram-Dawkins have moved on, the time has arrived for redshirt junior Christen Miller and junior Jordan Hall to take the lead. Miller started 10 games last season, finishing with 27 stops, including 3.5 tackles for loss. Redshirt sophomore Xzavier McLeod, a 2024 transfer, now has an entire year in the system under his belt and should contribute immediately. In addition, second-year players Joseph Jonah-Ajonye, Nnamdi Ogboko, Nasir Johnson, Jordan Greene and Jordan Thomas have their sights set on taking the next step under defensive line coach Tray Scott's tutelage. One of the country's top five prospects at any position, Savannah, Ga., native Elijah Griffin, along with fellow early enrollee JJ Hanne, have both been in the system since the beginning of the semester and will also be gearing up to earn playing time this fall. Griffin had 8.5 sacks in only nine games as a senior last year.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

The Bulldogs knew they had a special "Swiss Army Knife" in Jalon Walker last season and he proved to be just that, earning the Butkus Award and First Team All-America honors after notching 60 tackles, including 10.5 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks, and recovering a pair of fumbles. With he and two-year starter Chaz Chambliss training for the upcoming Draft, the time has now arrived for Gabe Harris, Jr., Quintavius Johnson and others to emerge. Harris Jr. had 3.5 tackles for loss and two sacks out of his 14 tackles last year and complemented those with two forced fumbles. While sophomores Chris Cole and Justin Williams are expected to continue helping at ILB, the pair will have the potential of shaping into a role like Jalon Walker as his development continues. More help arrived in January with early enrollees Isaiah Gibson, Darren Ikinnagbon and Chase Linton beginning their training on campus. Gibson was the country's No. 1 ranked player at his position after leading Warner Robins HS to the 2024 GHSA playoffs.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

A junior duo in CJ Allen and Raylen Wilson highlight a talented group inside. Allen, second only to Malaki Starks with 76 tackles last season, started 12 contests in 2024 after getting another five nods as a freshman. Wilson played in all 14 games last year and accumulated 47 stops, including seven tackles for loss. He also forced a fumble and recovered a loose ball in his second season. Chris Cole and Justin Williams are also predicted to play pivotal roles for the middle of the 2025 Bulldog defense. Redshirt junior Terrell Foster and redshirt freshman Kris Jones give UGA another pair of defenders who have at least a year in the system and will be gunning for playing time. As is the trend at most positions, two in-state products in AJ Kruah (Marietta, Ga.) and Zayden Walker (Ellaville, Ga.) were early enrollees and will look to continue the recent tradition of true freshmen getting snaps in the middle.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Another SEC Championship season with a CFP appearance is in the books and more Bulldog defensive backs will be featured on Sundays in the fall. Three-year starter Malaki Starks earned First Team All-America honors in 2024 alongside former walk-on turned All-SEC performer Dan Jackson, who helped clinch the conference title with a late-game bone-crushing hit and finished with two picks in his fifth and final season. With Starks and Jackson gone, 2024 Freshman All-American KJ Bolden and All-SEC and SEC Championship Game MVP Daylen Everette will be guiding the back of the defense along with junior Daniel Harris, senior JaCorey Thomas, redshirt sophomores Chris Peal and Kyron Jones and redshirt freshmen Ellis Robinson IV, Demello Jones and Ondre Evans battling for time. Bolden's 59 tackles were just in front of Everette's 58 stops last season as Everette topped the team with three interceptions. Junior Joenel Aguero will also be expanding his STAR role as his third season arrives. The beginning of the spring semester brought Jontae Gibson, Dominick Kelly and Todd Robinson to town as early enrollees as the defensive staff works to find its rotation.

SPECIALISTS

No team in the country returns a punter, place-kicker and snapper who were at least semifinalists for their individual position awards. Although senior Brett Thorson sustained a torn ACL in the SEC Championship Game, the Bulldogs are expecting the Aussie to return in 2025 after becoming a Ray Guy Award finalist last season. Junior Peyton Woodring was a semifinalist for the Lou Groza Award thanks to drilling 21 for 23 field goals in 2024, including three from 50 or more yards. In addition, UCLA graduate Beau Gardner will be back for his second season after garnering Patrick Mannelly Award finalist honors for his snapping duties. In the punting game, redshirt freshman Drew Miller relieved Thorson for the rest of the postseason after being arguably the most sought-after leg in the country the year before. Liam Badger and Henry Bates provide reinforcement kicking and punting game as well. At snapper, redshirt sophomore Will Snellings and redshirt freshman Luke Raab are options should the Bulldogs need them. While RB Cash Jones had four kick returns for 58 yards in 2024, the return game will be an open competition with the rest of the fleet departing in the offseason. As usual, Kirby Smart will aim to discover a new batch of talent on special teams as the preseason camp unfolds.

Place-kicker Peyton Woodring and punter Brett Thorson are two of the nation's best, leading an outstanding special teams unit.

2025 BULLDOG SPRING STORYLINES

Returning Experience and Youth

After posting an 11-3 mark with an SEC title and advancing to another College Football Playoff, Georgia's offensive and defensive numbers were deemed average compared to other top teams last year, but consider the Bulldogs played the nation's toughest schedule per ESPN's FPI.

Here's where the Bulldogs finished in the national rankings:
Scoring Offense: Georgia averaged 31.5 ppg (38th)
Scoring Defense: Georgia allowed 20.6 ppg (23rd)

Looking ahead to 2025, here's a general review of the positions on both sides of the football:

Quarterbacks: Gunner Stockton helped rally the 2024 Bulldogs to their 15th SEC title in school history by beating No. 2 Texas, and then he started the CFP quarterfinal against No. 5 Notre Dame. Now, he enters his fourth spring and will battle Ryan Puglisi.

Offensive Line: This position will be one of the most interesting spots to observe as four members of the 2024 group have moved on and participated in the NFL Combine (Tate Ratledge, Dylan Fairchild, Jared Wilson and Xavier Truss). Georgia welcomes back Earnest Greene, III who has 23 career starts including making nine at left tackle last year. Also, Monroe Freeling filled in for him at that spot for four games. Drew Bobo made two starts at center for Wilson while Micah Morris started five games at guard when Ratledge was sidelined.

Wide Receivers: Dillon Bell is the most experienced wideout as Georgia aims to fill some holes left with the graduation of leading receivers Dominic Lovett and Arian Smith. London Humphreys, USC transfer Zachariah Branch and other newcomers will be getting a long look.

Running Backs: With Trevor Etienne off to the NFL, Nate Frazier looks for a bigger role along with veterans Cash Jones, Branson Robinson and Roderick Robinson II. Now in their second seasons, Chauncey Bowens and Dwight Phillips Jr., look to make an impact.

Tight Ends: The top targets here return in Lawson Luckie and Oscar Delp. Jaden Reddell and Colton Henrich saw a bit of action in 2024 and a pair of the nation's top prospects joined this room in January too.

Defense Line: Christen Miller has a chance to be the headliner with the departure of Mykel Williams, Tyrion Ingram-Dawkins, Nazir Stackhouse and Warren Brinson all moving on to the NFL. Miller has played in 28 games in his career including 10 starts last year. Also, look for Jordan Hall and Joseph Jonah-Ajonye to be factors.

Linebackers: CJ Allen headlines the veteran group that must replace the latest Butkus Award winner from this room in Jalon Walker and the dependable veteran Chaz Chambliss and Smael Mondon. Gabe Harris, Raylen Wilson, Chris Cole, Justin Williams and Quintavius Johnson are just a few of the Bulldogs that should be ready for an increased role. Overall, Georgia has to replace seven of its top eight sack leaders off the 2024 squad.

Secondary: The return of Daylen Everette, Daniel Harris, KJ Bolden, Joenel Aguero and Jacorey Thomas provide some experience in the room, but the Bulldogs must replace a veteran pair of playmakers in All-America Malaki Starks and the gritty Dan Jackson.

Special Teams: Georgia welcomes back veterans Brett Thorson and Peyton Woodring to handle the punting and placekicking plus snapper Beau Gardner returns. Punter Drew Miller saw his first action in the Sugar Bowl after Thorson was injured during the SEC Championship. Thorson's career average of 45.6 ranks second best in school history, trailing only Jake Camarda's record mark of 45.8 set from 2018-21. In 2024, Georgia was the only team in the FBS that had its punter (Brett Thorson), placekicker (Peyton Woodring) and long snapper (Beau Gardner) named a semifinalist for the national award at their position. Thorson and Gardner were named finalists for these awards.

SMART Football

Kirby Smart enters his 10th season at the helm of his alma mater with a 105-19 mark. He is one of only two active coaches with multiple national championships. Georgia is the only team in the CFP-era to win back-to-back national titles, doing it in 2021-2022. The Bulldogs had 14 players invited to the 2025 NFL combine.

Georgia owns the nation's longest active bowl streak at 28 seasons. Since 2019, the Bulldogs are 7-1 in their past eight bowl/CFP matchups.

In 2024, the Bulldogs made their fourth straight appearance in the SEC Championship Game (SECCG) and seventh overall trip under Kirby Smart. After a 22-19 overtime win over then No. 2 Texas, the Bulldogs claimed their 15th SEC title in school history and the No. 2 seed in the CFP.

Now entering his 10th season, Kirby Smart's record is an impressive 105-19 for an .847 winning percentage. The highlights include back-to-back College Football Playoff (CFP) National Championships (2021, 2022), a 2017 CFP title game appearance, Southeastern Conference Championships in 2017, 2022 and 2024, six SEC Eastern Division titles and eight New Year's Six bowl games.

In 2024, Smart became the fifth fastest coach to reach 100 career wins in FBS history, needing just 117 games to do it. The milestone win, a 30-15 victory, came over No. 1 Texas in Austin. Two months later in the SEC Championship Game in Atlanta, Georgia beat then No. 2 Texas again. Over the last four years, Georgia has been the most dominant program, leading the FBS with a 53-5 record including two national titles and two SEC crowns. Overall, the Bulldogs lead the nation with 28 consecutive bowl game appearances. Through 2024, the program has produced 63 NFL draft picks in the Smart era including 17 first-round selections. Also, Georgia extended its national-leading streak of having at least one former player in the Super Bowl for the 24th consecutive year.

Smart returned to his alma mater in December of 2015, and in his second year, he had the Bulldogs playing for the national championship for the first time in three decades. The Bulldogs would end a 41-year championship drought in 2021. A year later, the Bulldogs would become the first and only team in the CFP era to repeat as national champions, going a perfect 15-0.

2024 – Georgia claimed the program's 15th SEC title and third during Smart's tenure by outlasting No. 2 Texas 22-19 in overtime. This marked the Bulldogs' second victory of the season over the Longhorns after taking down No. 1 UT in Austin 30-15 during the regular season. Registering his seventh season with at least 11 wins, Smart guided Georgia to its fourth CFP appearance since 2017 and earned a first round bye thanks to the Bulldogs' conference crown.

2023 - The Bulldogs completed an undefeated regular season, SEC Eastern Division title, and 13-1 overall record after defeating FSU, 63-3, in the 2023 Orange Bowl. The Bulldog defense ranked first in the SEC and 10th nationally in Total Defense (289.07 ypg) and Passing Defense (175.43 ypg), and fifth nationally in Scoring Defense (15.64 ppg). The Bulldog offense ranked first in the SEC in Total Offensive Plays (958), second in the SEC and fifth nationally in both Total Offense (496.5 ypg) and Scoring Offense (40.14), and second in the SEC in Passing Offense (305.29 ypg).

2022 - Georgia captured its second SEC championship of the Smart era in dominant fashion. The Bulldogs went 12-0 in the regular season and soundly defeated LSU in the SEC title game, earning a No. 1 seed in the final CFP rankings. The Bulldogs then came back to defeat No. 4 Ohio State in the Peach Bowl CFP semifinal.

2021 - His 2021 team became UGA's first national champion since 1980, the first since 1982 to go undefeated in the SEC regular season, a No. 1 national ranking by all the major polls and the first ever to win 14 games. It marked the fifth straight team to finish the regular season ranked in the top ten of the College Football Playoff rankings. The team set 21 school records, highlighted by the nation's top-ranked defense. The third-ranked Bulldogs defeated #2 Michigan, 34-11, in the Orange Bowl in Miami and then No. 1 Alabama, 33-18, in the championship game in Indianapolis. The senior class also set the mark for most career wins by going 45-8. After the regular season, Smart was named SEC Coach of the Year for the second time in five years. Georgia's championship season enjoyed a fitting exclamation mark at the 2022 NFL Draft. The Bulldogs set a Draft record with 15 players taken, including five defenders in the first round, led by the first overall selection, junior Travon Walker.

2020 - The 2020 Bulldogs became Smart's fourth consecutive team to earn a New Year's Six bowl game appearance. With a Peach Bowl victory over undefeated Cincinnati on Jan. 1, 2021, the Bulldog seniors tied the record for the most wins by one class in school history (44).
2019 - Smart's 2019 Bulldogs became the first team in school history to win 11 or more games for a third straight season. Georgia defeated three teams in the final Top 15 CFP ranking — Notre Dame, Florida, and Auburn — and finished fourth in the final polls. The Bulldogs capped their season with a dominant victory over Baylor in the Sugar Bowl game.
2018 - Georgia in 2018 posted an 11-1 regular season record, a second straight SEC Eastern Division title, and a ranking as high as number four in the CFP poll. Georgia landed in the Sugar Bowl on Jan. 1, 2019—the program's tenth all-time appearance in the New Orleans classic.
2017 - Smart's second season in 2017 was a special one, with an 11-1 regular-season record, an SEC title, a win over Oklahoma in the Rose Bowl Game (CFP semifinal) and advancement into the CFP National Championship Game. It was the first conference title since 2005 for the Red and Black.

Both Smart and his players reaped the bounty of their banner 2017 season. He was named George Munger National Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Football Club, SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and SEC Coaches, and the Regional Coach of the Year by the AFCA. Roquan Smith earned first-team All-America honors and the Dick Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker.
2016 - In Smart's first season leading the Bulldogs, Georgia made its 20th straight bowl appearance and posted four fourth-quarter comebacks, including wins over No. 8 Auburn and No. 22 UNC. He led the Bulldogs to an 8-5 final record, which included a victory over TCU in the Liberty Bowl.

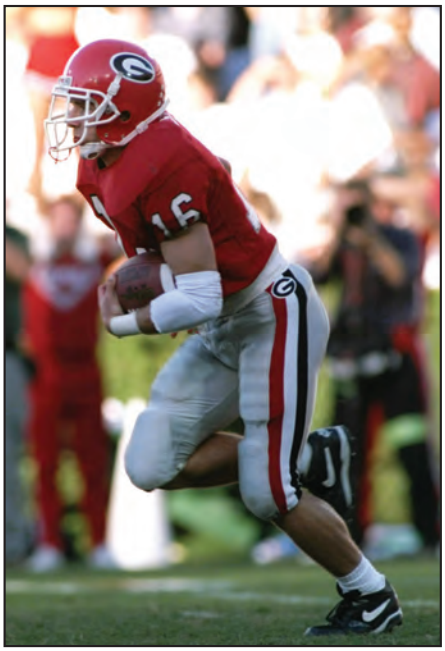
As an Assistant Coach

When Smart officially came home to Georgia on Dec. 6, 2015, he had unfinished business as defensive coordinator at Alabama, which was still chasing a national title. He juggled both jobs for a month until Jan. 11, 2016, when the Crimson Tide won its fourth national championship in a 7-year span. Twelve hours later, he was at work in Athens, where he remains one of 15 head coaches at schools from Power 5 conferences that are coaching at their alma maters.

Smart had served on the Alabama staff the previous nine years, seven as defensive coordinator. During his tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide won three BCS National Championships, one CFP national title, three SEC crowns, six SEC Western Division titles, and was ranked in the nation's final top 10 the last eight years in a row.

During Smart's time at Alabama, he coached players at three different positions, in addition to his coordinating duties. He was recognized as the 2012 AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year and the 2009 Broyles Award winner as college football's top assistant. He also was a finalist for the award in 2015.

Prior to joining the Alabama staff in 2007, Smart spent the 2006 season as safeties coach with the NFL's Miami Dolphins. He served six years at the collegiate level as the running backs coach at Georgia (2005), defensive backs coach at LSU (2004), graduate assistant at Florida State (2002-03), defensive coordinator/linebackers coach (2001) and defensive backs coach (2000) at Valdosta State, and administrative assistant at Georgia (1999).



Smart was a first-team All-SEC choice as a senior in 1998, when he led the league with five interceptions.

Smart was the running backs coach for Georgia's 2005 SEC Championship team. He coached Thomas Brown, Danny Ware and Kregg Lumpkin — all future NFL players. In 2004 at LSU, he tutored two NFL draft picks: Corey Webster (2nd round, New York Giants) and Travis Daniels (4th round, Miami).

As a Player

Smart was a four-year letterman at defensive back for Georgia, where he was a First-Team All-SEC pick as a senior. He finished his career with 13 interceptions, a mark that still ranks sixth in UGA annals, and paced the Bulldogs with six interceptions in 1997 and five in 1998. He led the SEC in interceptions during his final season.

A four-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Smart received his bachelor's degree in Finance from Georgia in 1998 and his master's in Physical Education from Florida State in 2003.

The Smart Family

The Bainbridge, Ga., native is married to the former Mary Beth Lycett of McDonough, Ga., a 4-year letterwinner and 2-year starter on the Georgia women's basketball team from 2000-03. The couple met long after their undergraduate days at Georgia, when Lycett — then working in the UGA Athletic Association Business Office — helped arrange Smart's trip to interview for the Bulldogs' running backs coaching job in 2005. They are the proud parents of twins Weston and Julia (born Feb. 8, 2008) and son Andrew (born May 25, 2012).

Kirby and Mary Beth Smart also oversee the Kirby Smart Family Foundation, which is focused on being champions in the community by supporting needy children and families facing adversity.

Kirk Benedict

Special Teams Coordinator

Kirk Benedict was named the Bulldogs' Special Teams Coordinator in February 2024 after serving two years as the team's Special Teams Analyst.

Benedict's special teams unit shined throughout the Bulldogs' run to their 2024 Southeastern Conference championship and their fourth appearance in the College Football Playoffs. Junior P Brett Thorson was named a Ray Guy Award finalist and USA Today Second Team All-American after averaging 47.6 yards (No. 4 nationally, No. 2 in UGA history) and forcing 14 fair catches. Georgia finished the year with a 43.5 Net Punting average (No. 5 nationally), giving up only 4.1 ypg. The Bulldogs' kicking game was just as impressive as two-time Lou Groza Award semifinalist Peyton Woodring drilled 91 percent of his field goals (No. 12 nationally, No. 2 in the SEC) after connecting on 21 of 23 tries, including a career-long 55 yarder in the win over No. 14 Clemson.

Adding to the strength of Benedict's group was the fact that Georgia was the only team to have a 2024 semifinalist for the Ray Guy, Lou Groza and Patrick Mannelly (nation's top snapper) awards. Graduate transfer Beau Gardner eventually earned a spot as one of the country's top three snappers after snapping all season to Thorson and Benedict.

Benedict helped guide Woodring to Lou Groza Award semifinalist honors in 2023 as the true freshman connected on 21 of 25 field goals, including four of five from 40-49 yards, and all 71 PATs to set the Bulldog freshman record for most points kicking. His 134 points ranks third on Georgia's all-time PK scoring list for a season and he ranked sixth nationally in scoring at 9.6 ppg (top freshman, No. 3 PK overall). Thorson ended the Bulldogs' 13-1 season with a 43.8 average thanks to a performance that included 21 fair catches forced.

The Bulldogs punt return defense was also the only unit in the country to allow zero punt returns during 2023. Benedict is part of a coaching and support staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 CFP National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a semifinal win over Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl semifinal, 42-21.

In 2022, PK Jack Podlesny set the UGA record for most points scores in a season with 151 (26 FGs, 73 PATs). He was named the SEC Special Teams Player of the Year and First Team All-SEC by the AP and the SEC Coaches. Podlesny also set the record for most PATs in a CFP Championship Game with eight. Thorson also earned SEC All-Freshman Team honors.

Benedict joined Duke's coaching staff in June 2014 and worked with the Blue Devils until he arrived in Athens. He served as the Special Teams Coordinator and the Recruiting Coordinator while aiding the defensive staff.

Before his time as Special Teams Coordinator and Recruiting Coordinator at Duke, Benedict spent three seasons (2018-20) as an assistant coach mentoring the special teams unit and assisting on defense. In 2016 and 2017, he served as a graduate assistant coach while working primarily with the offense and the entire special teams operation. Prior to that, he served as an operations assistant working with the special teams units during the 2014 and 2015 seasons.

A native of Fairfax, Va., Benedict was a two-time All-Pioneer Football League fullback at Davidson College before graduating with a degree in political science in 2010. He was tabbed the program's offensive MVP as a senior in 2009.

Following his graduation from Davidson, Benedict was commissioned as an officer in the U.S. Army and graduated from the Army Reconnaissance Course in 2011. He was stationed in Germany from 2011-14, serving as a Reconnaissance Platoon Leader and Troop Executive Officer in the 2nd Cavalry Regiment. Benedict also served two deployments to Afghanistan (2011, 2013-14) before exiting the army at the rank of captain.

Benedict is married to the former Molly Battle and they have two daughters, Nora and Gwen, and a son, Kirk Jr.

Mike Bobo

John & Alice Sands Offensive Coordinator / Quarterbacks

A Georgia native who played quarterback for the Bulldogs from 1994-97 and was an on-field coach for the program from 2001-14, Mike Bobo began his second stint as UGA's Offensive Coordinator in February 2023 after serving a season in a Quality Control position for the Bulldogs' offense.

In 2024, Bobo utilized a new corps of running backs and a familiar quarterback and top three receiving targets to help Georgia capture its second Southeastern Conference championship in three years. The Bulldogs ranked 12th nationally in Passing Offense (281.0 ypg, third in the SEC) to help knock off No. 1 Texas in Austin, the then No. 2 Longhorns in the SEC Championship Game and two other top 15 opponents. Thanks in part to his offense's 31.5 ppg, Georgia advanced to its fourth College Football Playoff appearance since 2017.

His 2023 offense was instrumental in the Bulldogs' undefeated regular season, SEC Eastern Division title and 13-1 overall record highlighted by a 63-3 win over No. 5 Florida State in the 2023 Capital One Orange Bowl. The Georgia offense ranked second in the SEC and fifth nationally in Total Offense (496.5 ypg) and Scoring Offense (40.1 ppg) and second in the SEC and 11th nationally in Passing Offense (305.3 ypg), helping him earn a second Broyles Award finalist accolade (2012).

A veteran coach in the SEC, Bobo spent the 2021 season as offensive coordinator at Auburn. He worked in 2020 at South Carolina as OC and QBs coach after his five-year stint as head coach at Colorado State. At CSU, he guided the Rams to bowl games in each of his first three seasons, making him the lone coach in program history to accomplish that feat.

He is part of a coaching and support staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 CFP National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a semifinal win over Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl semifinal, 42-41.

The Georgia offense ranked among the top five nationally in both Scoring Offense (41.1 ppg) and Total Offense (501.1 ypg) in 2022. The 'Dogs also finished first nationally in Red Zone Offense (97.6%), First Downs (375), and Fourth Down Conversion Percentage (86.7%). Senior quarterback Stetson Bennett became the first player to be named the offensive Most Valuable Player in four CFP games, including twice in a CFP National Championship Game.

A veteran coach in the SEC, Bobo spent the 2021 season as offensive coordinator at Auburn. He worked in 2020 at South Carolina as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach after his five-year stint as head coach at Colorado State.

At Colorado State, he guided the Rams to bowl games in each of his first three seasons, making him the lone coach in program history to accomplish that feat. Bobo also joined Sonny Lubick as the only two to coach the Rams in multiple bowl games in their careers.

Overall, Bobo's teams left their marks on the offensive record book at CSU, as his squads own three of the top six marks for total offense in a season as well as the school record for most yards per game in a season (492.5, 2017). His Rams also posted three of the top seven scoring seasons in CSU history.

Bobo spent all but one of the first 22 years of his adult life at Georgia as a player or assistant coach. While in Athens as an undergraduate, he was a record-breaking starting quarterback and then spent 16 seasons working for the program.

Bobo's initial 14-year stint at Georgia as a full-time coach began in January 2001 when Mark Richt hired him as quarterbacks coach. Bobo had previously worked on the football staff in an administrative role in 1998, then as a graduate assistant in 1999.

Bobo coached the Bulldog quarterbacks through the 2006 season. He then added the duties of offensive coordinator in 2007 and stayed in that post until accepting the Colorado State head coaching position after the 2014 season.

Bobo played four seasons with head coach Kirby Smart from 1994-97 at Georgia and coached alongside him in 2005 when Smart was running backs coach for a year.

During his time at UGA, Bobo helped lead the Bulldogs to 135 victories, including two SEC championships, five SEC Eastern Division titles and eight bowl victories. The 2012 Broyles Award finalist held the offensive coordinator spot for 92 games with the Bulldogs, scoring 30-plus points 57 times, 40-plus points 29 times and more than 50 points 13 times. In fact, four of the top five seasons for average yards per game in history for the Bulldogs came under Bobo, including the school record mark of 484.15 in 2012.

Bobo guided several talented quarterbacks at Georgia, including Aaron Murray, NFL Pro Bowler Matthew Stafford and David Greene, along with All-Pro wide receiver A.J. Green, running back Todd Gurley and many others. In all, Bobo helped mold four first-round NFL draft choices at Georgia: Stafford (No. 1 in 2009), running back Knowshon Moreno (No. 12 in 2009), Green (No. 4 in 2011) and Gurley (No. 10 in 2015).

Prior to joining Richt's staff at Georgia, Bobo served one year as an assistant coach at Jacksonville State.

Bobo was a quarterback for the Bulldogs from 1994-97, throwing for 6,334 yards, the eighth-most all-time by a Georgia quarterback, and set several Georgia passing records. As a senior in 1997, he threw for 2,751 yards on 199 completions in 306 attempts and had 19 TD to just eight interceptions.

Bobo, a native of Thomasville, Ga., and his wife, Lainie, have five children, a son Drew, who is a Bulldog center; triplets Olivia, Jake and Ava Grace; and Kate. His father, George, was a long-time successful high school coach in Georgia.

James Coley

Assistant Coach / Wide Receivers

James Coley was hired as the Georgia wide receiver's coach in February 2024. This marks Coley's second stint with the Bulldogs after serving on Kirby Smart's staff in a variety of roles on offense over his Smart's first four years (2016-19). Regarded as one of the elite recruiters in college football, Coley utilized a returning trio of receiving targets in 2024 to help Georgia capture its second Southeastern Conference championship in three years. The Bulldogs ranked 12th nationally in Passing Offense (281.0 ypg, third in the SEC) to help knock off No. 1 Texas in Austin, the then No. 2 Longhorns in the SEC Championship Game and two other top 15 opponents. Thanks in part to his receiving corps helping the team average 31.5 ppg, Georgia advanced to its fourth College Football Playoff appearance since 2017.

Coley helped guide Texas A&M's offense from 2020 through the 2023 season. He served as the Aggies' tight ends coach in 2020-21 before taking on the role as co-offensive coordinator and receivers coach during the 2022-23 seasons.

Coley's final season in College Station in 2023 saw Texas A&M scoring 33.3 ppg as Ainias Smith led the receiving attack with 53 catches for 795 yards. Smith finished as the only 2,000-yard receiver in SEC history to also rack up at least 250 rushing, punt return and kickoff return yards.

In 2022, Coley helped the receiver group compile 220 receptions for 2,633 yards and 18 touchdowns despite losing Smith four games into the season because of a season-ending injury. Coley also helped develop Freshman All-American receiver Evan Stewart. Stewart led the squad with 53 receptions and 649 yards to go along with two touchdown catches.

Coley and the Texas A&M offense highlighted their 2021 season by knocking off No. 1 Alabama in College Station 41-38, thanks in part to Coley's receiving corps. Smith hauled in a pair of crucial touchdowns, including a game-tying 25 yarder late in the fourth quarter.

During the 2020, Coley helped the Aggies post an impressive 9-1 record, including an 8-1 regular season mark against an all-SEC slate. A&M concluded the season with a lopsided victory over nationally ranked North Carolina in the program's first New Year's Six bowl game.

Coley started on UGA's coaching staff when Smart took over as head coach in 2016, spending the 2016 and 2017 seasons as receivers coach. He was named co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Georgia in 2018 and spent the next two seasons in that role.

Coley was part of a 2017 staff that led the Bulldogs to a record-tying 13 victories, first SEC championship since 2005, first appearance in the CFP, first appearance (and victory over Oklahoma) in the Rose Bowl CFP semifinal and first appearance in the CFP National Championship Game. Georgia's offense finished first in the SEC and ninth nationally in Rushing Offense (258.4 ypg), third in the SEC in Scoring Offense (35.4 ppg), fifth in Total Offense (435.3 ypg) and fourth nationally in Red Zone Offense (0.964).

The Bulldogs followed up in 2018 with another SEC Eastern Division championship, 11-win season, and appearance in the Allstate Sugar Bowl. The Georgia offense finished first in the SEC in total Rushing Offense, Rushing Offense Per Game and second in the SEC in Total Offense, Touchdowns Scored and Scoring Offense.

Coley's two seasons of coaching Bulldog receivers produced a pair of NFL draft picks: Isaiah McKenzie (Denver) and Javon Wims (Chicago). In 2018, he coached sophomore quarterback Jake Fromm who posted the second-best Completion Percentage in school history at 67.3, which was 12th nationally, and second-best Passing Efficiency for a QB at 171.21, which was fifth nationally.

Coley served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Miami from 2013-15. Prior to joining the Miami staff, he held positions as offensive coordinator and tight ends coach (2010-12) and tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator (2008-09) at Florida State.

At FSU, Coley coached three first round draft picks in quarterbacks Christian Ponder, EJ Manuel and Jameis Winston. The Seminole offenses under Coley were high powered averaging 31.4 points per game in 2010, 30.6 in 2011 and 39.3 in 2012.

While at Miami, the Hurricane offense led the nation in "explosive plays" all three years and they produced two 1,000-yard rushers in Duke Johnson (1,652 yards in 2014) and Joe Yearly (1,002 in 2015). Coley coached 2014 freshman quarterback Brad Kaaya who earned Freshman All-America honors and broke the single season record for passing yards and TDs at Miami (3,198 yards, 26 TDs). Wide receiver Allen Hurns, who spent eight years in the NFL, broke the single season receiving record with 1,162 yards in 2013.

In 2014, his Miami offense averaged 430.3 yards per game and seven of Coley's offensive players earned All-ACC honors with Johnson and Shane McDermott receiving first team recognition. In addition, tight end Clive Walford earned AP All-America honors.

A native of Miami, Fla., he served as an offensive assistant with the Miami Dolphins in 2005-06. His coaching resume also included a stop at 2003 national champion LSU where he served as a graduate assistant coach.

Coley earned his bachelor's degree from Florida State in 1997 and his master's degree from LSU in 2004. He and his wife Kenia have two children – Madison and Brady.

Josh Crawford

Run Game Coordinator / Running Backs

Georgia hired Josh Crawford as run game coordinator/running backs coach in February 2024.

Crawford's stable in the backfield during his first year with the Bulldogs included a 1-2 combo in first-year transfer Trevor Etienne and freshman Nate Frazier. Etienne earned All-Southeastern Conference Third Team honors with more than 600 yards on the ground and a team-high nine touchdowns in only 10 games. Frazier, a Freshman All-SEC selection, went for a team-high 671 yards and eight scores. His contingent also combined for nearly 80 catches, 645 yards and four touchdowns through the air.

Crawford, who earned his master's degree from Georgia in 2012, was Georgia Tech's wide receivers coach for the 2023 season. Crawford's single season with the Yellow Jackets produced a Freshman All-American in Eric Singleton Jr. as he hauled in 48 catches for 714 yards and six touchdowns. Georgia Tech had 14 different players catch balls, including Malik Rutherford who finished with 46 catches and more than 500 yards receiving. Crawford made an immediate impact in recruiting as he signed Singleton Jr. and a talented group for 2024.

With a decade as one of the state of Georgia's most successful and respected high school coaches, Crawford entered into collegiate coaching in 2021 at Western Kentucky and helped guide one of college football's most prolific offenses for two seasons. He served as WKU's outside receivers coach in 2021 and was promoted to co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach in 2022. In his two seasons at WKU, Crawford's wideouts combined for 10,339 receiving yards and 94 touchdowns.

Prior to making the jump to the college ranks, Crawford established himself as one of the nation's top offensive coaches in the high school ranks, coaching at five of Georgia's most storied and successful programs – Colquitt County H.S., Valdosta H.S., Lee County H.S., Jefferson County H.S. and Greater Atlanta Christian (2010-12 – running backs/tight ends).

During his 11 seasons in the high school ranks, Crawford helped lead three teams to Georgia 6A state championships and one national title. He coached six all-state receivers, four of which went on to play at the Power Five level.

Crawford played collegiately at Morehouse College in Atlanta, where he was a running back from 2004-06. He earned a bachelor's degree from Morehouse in 2007 and master's degrees from both Georgia and Valdosta State (2020).

Todd Hartley

Assistant Head Coach / Tight Ends

Todd Hartley, a University of Georgia graduate who had also been a full-time staff member with the Bulldog football program in the past, was named tight ends coach on January 14, 2019, and added the Assistant Head Coach responsibilities in 2023.

Since coming to UGA, Hartley has helped to create quite a pipeline for tight ends. Brock Bowers headlines the list as the first back-to-back Mackey Award winner (2022-23) in history and just the third three-time First Team All-American in Georgia football history. The All-Pro tight end recently completed his first season with the Las Vegas Raiders and finished as a finalist for the League's Offensive Rookie of the Year after setting NFL records for most receptions in a season by a rookie (112) and most receiving yards in a season by a rookie tight end (1,194).

The NFL has benefited from Hartley's players who have now been drafted in six straight years: Isaac Nauta (7th Rd., 224th pick) in 2019, Charlie Woerner (6th Rd., 190th pick) in 2020, Tré McKitty (3rd Rd., 97th pick) in 2021, John FitzPatrick (6th Rd., 213th pick) in 2022, Darnell Washington (3rd Rd., 93rd pick) in 2023 and Bowers (1st Rd., 13th pick) in 2024.

Hartley has been part of the most productive stretches in the Bulldogs' history. Georgia has compiled a 53-5 record over the last four seasons, including back-to-back College Football Playoff National Championships (2021, 2022), six consecutive New Year's Six bowl games, the 2022 and 2024 SEC Championships since Hartley's return to the program.

Most recently, Hartley guided a mixture of experienced veterans and promising newcomers at his position to more than 60 catches for nearly 800 yards and seven touchdowns. The Bulldogs ranked 12th nationally in Passing Offense (281.0 ypg, third in the SEC) to help knock off No. 1 Texas in Austin, the then No. 2 Longhorns in the SEC Championship Game and two other top 15 opponents. Thanks in part to his tight ends' contributions, Georgia advanced to its fourth College Football Playoff appearance since 2017.

In 2023, Bowers led the Bulldogs in receiving for the third straight year as the offense finished ranked fifth nationally in both Scoring Offense (40.1 points/game) and Total Offense (496.5 yards/game) and led the country in 3rd Down Conversions (55.2 percent) in 2023. Georgia went 13-1 following its 63-3 rout of No. 5 Florida State in the Capital One Orange Bowl, marking the program's third straight year with at last 13 victories.

Hartley was part of a coaching staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 College Football Playoff National Championship with a 65-7 victory over No. 3 TCU in the title game following a 42-41 win over No. 4 Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl CFP Semifinal. The Georgia offense ranked among the top five nationally in both Scoring Offense (41.1 ppg) and Total Offense (501.1 ypg) in 2022. The 'Dogs also finished first nationally in Red Zone Offense (97.6 percent), First Downs (375) and Fourth Down Percentage (86.7 percent).

Thanks in part to Hartley and his unit, the Bulldogs captured their first national championship since 1980 with a 14-1 campaign in 2021, highlighted with a 33-18 win over No. 1 Alabama in the CFP National Championship. That season, Georgia ranked 10th nationally in Scoring Offense (38.4 ppg) as Bowers topped his teammates with 56 catches for 882 yards (15.8 avg.) and 13 touchdowns in his true freshman season.

A native of Gray, Ga., Hartley served as the University of Miami's Special Teams Coordinator and Tight Ends Coach from 2016-18, under head coach Mark Richt.

Hartley arrived in Miami after serving as Georgia's Director of Player Personnel in 2015. Before his return to Georgia, he spent four years at Marshall serving in a variety of roles, including tight ends and safeties coach and recruiting coordinator from 2011-14.

Hartley originally joined the Georgia program as a student assistant at the end of the 2005 season. He worked with the offense and special teams until the spring of 2008 while he was an undergraduate.

Georgia tallied three bowl victories during Hartley's years working with the Bulldogs as a student, including a 41-10 win over No. 10 Hawai'i in the 2008 Sugar Bowl. He was instrumental in preparation of the Georgia defense for the 2009 Independence Bowl, when only one full-time defensive assistant was on staff. The Bulldogs routed Texas A&M 44-20 that night in Shreveport.

Hartley graduated from Georgia with a degree in health and physical education in May 2008. He and his wife Jessica have four children: Tucker, Teagan, Tenley and Tatum.

Sophomore cornerback Israel Mukuamu earned Second Team All-SEC honors, while Jammie Robinson and Zacch Pickens earned SEC All-Freshman accolades for the Gamecocks in 2019.

In 2017, South Carolina led the SEC and ranked ninth in the country with 28 turnovers forced, while ranking 25th in points allowed per game at 20.7. The Gamecocks held 11 of their 13 opponents to fewer points than their season average. South Carolina also tied for 10th in the nation in turnovers forced with 27 during the 2016 campaign, including 15 interceptions.

Robinson spent five seasons coaching defensive backs before arriving in Columbia, S.C., as defensive coordinator – first at Florida (2011-14), then at Auburn (2015). Thacker helped produce one of the AAC's highest-ranked defenses during his one season as the defensive coordinator at Temple. In addition to ranking among the nation's top three teams in defensive touchdowns, turnovers, fumble recoveries and interceptions, the Owls were among the AAC's top three teams in Total Defense (second), Passing Defense (second), Third Down Conversion Percentage Defense (second) and Scoring Defense (third). As linebackers coach in 2017, he helped TU rank among the top teams nationally in both Sacks (11th) and Tackles for Loss (11th).

Prior to his two seasons at Temple, Thacker spent the 2016 season as linebackers coach at Kennesaw State, where he helped KSU lead the Big South in Scoring Defense and Rushing Defense and rank second in Total Defense.

His career includes stints as a full-time assistant at UCF (2015 – safeties) and Southern Miss (2013 – safeties). He has also served as a defensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons (2014), a graduate assistant at Oklahoma State (2010-12 – linebackers) and a graduate assistant at UCF (2008-09 – linebackers).

Thacker was a four-year starter at safety at Furman (2004-07), where he was named the 2004 Southern Conference Freshman of the Year. He graduated from Furman in 2007 with bachelor's degrees in political science and Spanish. He and his wife, Liza, have a daughter, Brooks, and two sons, Bear and Jackson.

Chidera Uzo-Diribe

Assistant Coach / Outside Linebackers

Chidera Uzo-Diribe was named outside linebackers coach on Feb. 6, 2022, after serving briefly as defensive line coach at TCU.

Most recently, Uzo-Diribe helped guide his unit to another batch of success in his third season with the Bulldogs in 2024. The defense began the year holding No. 14 Clemson to just three points and helped the Bulldogs blast top-ranked Texas 30-15 in Austin in front of a record crowd after the Longhorns arrived averaging 43.2 ppg. Georgia's defense flexed its muscle during the season's fourth quarter, holding opponents to their lowest cumulative quarter total of 60 points.

Under Uzo-Diribe's tutelage, hybrid LB Jalon Walker garnered Georgia's third Butkus Award since 2017 and was a First Team All-American last season. Senior OLB Chaz Chambliss earned All-Southeastern Conference Third Team honors after piling up 40 tackles, including 9.5 tackles for loss and 6.5 sacks, while another versatile LB, Chris Cole, was named to the 2024 Freshman All-SEC Team.

Uzo-Diribe helped the Bulldogs go 13-1 in 2023, finishing the campaign with a 63-3 dismantling of No. 5 Florida State in the Capital One Orange Bowl. The defense kept opponents to just 15.6 ppg, which ranked fifth nationally, and led the country in 3rd Down Conversion Defense (25.7 percent).

He was part of a coaching staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 CFP National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a semifinal win over Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl, 42-41. The Georgia defense finished the season ranked among the nation's leaders in Rushing Defense (1st, 77.1), Scoring Defense (5th, 14.3 ppg), Red Zone Defense (2nd, 0.676) and Total Defense (9th, 296.8 ypg).

Uzo-Diribe, a native of Corona, Calif., came to Athens after serving as defensive line coach with SMU in 2021. He followed head coach Sonny Dykes to TCU after the 2021 season before accepting the position at UGA. SMU was 8-4 in 2021 and defensive lineman Elijah Chatman earned All-American Conference Second Team honors. Uzo-Diribe also coached defensive lineman DeVere Levelston who led the conference in sacks.

Uzo-Dribe had previously worked two seasons at Kansas (2019, 2020) where he served as outside linebackers coach. While with the Jayhawks, he coached Kyron Johnson who earned All-Big 12 honors. Prior to working with the Jayhawks, Uzo-Diribe spent three seasons (2016-18) as a graduate assistant with the defensive line and outside linebackers at Colorado. He coached outside linebacker Jimmie Gilbert who earned AP All-America Third Team honors.

In the summer of 2018, he participated in the Bill Walsh NFL Diversity Coaching Fellowship Program with the San Francisco 49ers, a program created to offer minority coaches more opportunities to learn, coupled with great exposure to job opportunities. He was also named to 247Sports' 30-Under-30 list of rising stars in college coaching.

Uzo-Diribe was a four-year letterman at Colorado and finished his career tied for sixth in sacks, tied for 17th in TFLs and second in forced fumbles. In 2013, he ranked second nationally in forced fumbles with five and was on the final watch list for the Ted Hendricks Award for the nation's top defensive end of the year. Uzo-Diribe went on to sign as a free agent with the New Orleans Saints in 2015.

Uzo-Diribe married the former Hana Asmamaw in May of 2021, and the couple welcomed twins, Amara and Amani, in December 2022.

Donte Williams

Assoc. Head Coach / Defensive Backs

Donte Williams, a veteran of coaching defensive backs at multiple power conference schools, was named the defensive backs coach at UGA in December of 2023.

Williams worked with Bulldog Defensive Coordinator Glenn Schumann to maintain the standard set by Georgia's recent defenses. In his first game with UGA, the defense held No. 14 Clemson to just three points. During one of Georgia's next challenges, Williams' unit helped the Bulldogs blast top-ranked Texas 30-15 in Austin in front of a record-breaking crowd after the Longhorns arrived averaging 43.2 ppg. The defense flexed its muscle during the 2024 season's fourth quarter, holding opponents to their lowest cumulative quarter total of 60 points.

Under Williams' tutelage, junior DB Daylen Everette started all 14 games and had a team-high three interceptions to go along with 58 tackles, two forced fumbles and a fumble recovery. Everette was the MVP of the SEC Championship Game after his two picks helped the Bulldogs down Texas for the second time on the year.

Williams previously served in the same role at Southern California, where he worked on the Trojans' staff from 2020-2023. He was originally hired onto the staff as the defensive passing game coordinator and cornerbacks coach, serving in those roles in 2020.

Williams was promoted to assistant coach in 2021 and also held those same previous duties. Following the head coaching change in 2021, Williams served as the interim head coach for the remainder of the 2021 season. He continued to serve on new head coach Lincoln Riley's staff in 2022 and '23 as defensive backs coach and defensive passing game coordinator.

During the 2022 season, Williams helped lead the program's defense to a top-five national ranking in interceptions per game. He helped develop Mekhi Blackmon, an All Pac-12 First Team member in 2022, during which Blackmon recorded 66 total tackles, two of which were for a loss, 12 pass breakups, three interceptions, a fumble recovery and a forced fumble. Blackmon was selected in the third round of the 2023 NFL Draft by the Minnesota Vikings. Southern California won 11 games in '22 and earned a berth in the Cotton Bowl. In 2023, the Trojans advanced to the Holiday Bowl against Louisville.

Before he arrived at USC, Williams spent the 2018 and '19 seasons at Oregon as the Ducks' cornerbacks coach. The Ducks finished 2018 ranked 11th in the nation in interceptions with 17 and 2019 with the second-most of any program in the country with 20. Oregon went to bowl games in those seasons, winning the Redbox Bowl over Michigan State in 2018 and the Rose Bowl in 2019 against No. 5 Wisconsin. Williams played a pivotal role in recruiting Oregon's class of 2020, which ranked seventh in the nation and top in the Pac-12.

Williams was hired to coach the cornerbacks for Arizona in 2016. He then coached cornerbacks, nickelbacks and dimebacks at Nebraska in 2017, also assisting with the program's pass-defense coordination.

Williams was hired by San Jose State in 2013 as the program's cornerbacks coach and then was promoted to serve as both the defensive backs coach and the recruiting coordinator for the program, a position which he held for the 2014 and 2015 seasons. During the 2014 campaign, the Spartans only allowed 117.8 passing yards per game and gave up just six passing touchdowns on the season, both of which ranked top in the nation.

The following year in 2015, SJSU continued its dominance in passing defense thanks to Williams, holding offenses to an average of 157.8 passing yards per game, the second lowest in the nation. The Spartans would finish the year winning the Cure Bowl, beating Georgia State 27-16. During his tenure, Williams was named a Top 10 National Recruiter by Sports Illustrated in 2015 and as the top recruiter in the Mountain West by 247Sports in 2014.

Williams was hired by current Texas coach Steve Sarkisian to join the staff at Washington as a graduate assistant for the 2011 and 2012 seasons. His responsibilities included assisting with overseeing the cornerbacks and linebackers for the Huskies. Washington spent time ranked during both seasons and made the Alamo Bowl in 2011 and the Las Vegas Bowl in 2012.

He earned his first spot on staff with an FBS program at Nevada in 2010 as a defensive quality control coach for the Wolfpack. The team went on to make the Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl in San Francisco where it beat Boston College, 20-13.

Williams began the first three years of his coaching career at a trio of small colleges as the cornerbacks coach at each stop. He was on staff for three different California schools for the 2007, 2008 and 2009 seasons - at Los Angeles Harbor Community College, El Camino Junior College and Mount San Antonio Junior College, respectively.

Alongside his first stints in coaching, Williams also played two seasons in the Arena Football League 2 - for the Rio Grand Valley Dorados in 2007 and then the Arkansas Twisters in 2008.

Williams played high school football for Culver City High in California and eventually began his collegiate playing career as a defensive back at Pasadena City College in California for the 2002 season. He then played at Syracuse in 2003 before ending his collegiate career at Idaho State in 2004 and 2005, receiving a bachelor's degree in Communications in the spring of 2006. Williams received All-Big Sky First Team recognitions and was selected as a team captain during both seasons playing for the Bengals.

Williams is married to his wife Jayna and the two have a son named King.

Scott Sinclair

Director of Strength & Conditioning

Scott Sinclair was named Director of Strength and Conditioning on January 6, 2016, after serving three years in the same position at Marshall University.

He has been part of a coaching and support staff that led the Bulldogs to the 2021 and 2022 College Football Playoff National Championships. During his tenure at UGA, the Bulldogs have also won seven SEC Eastern Division titles (2017-19, '21-'22-'23-'24), and earned eight consecutive appearances in a New Year's Six Bowl game. The 2017 'Dogs also played in the CFP national championship game, while the 2024 team played in the CFP quarterfinals.

Sinclair joined the Marshall program in January 2013, working with both football and track and field teams. He came to Marshall after nine years as an associate director of strength and conditioning at UCF, where he worked with the football, baseball and track & field programs.

In May 2012, Sinclair was awarded the highest honor in his field when he was certified as a master strength and conditioning coach (MSCC) at the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association's national conference. The title of master strength and conditioning coach represents professionalism, knowledge, experience, expertise as well as longevity in the field. He is also CPR/AED certified.

Sinclair served as an assistant strength and conditioning coach for the football program at Georgia Tech from 2001-03. From 1999-2001, he worked as a strength coach in the Wake Forest athletic department.

A native of Rockingham, N.C., he earned his bachelor's degree in sports medicine from Guilford College in 1999. Sinclair, a member of the Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association, received a master's degree in physical education from UCF in 2006. Sinclair and his wife, Farrah, have a son, Creed, and a daughter, Asher.

Josh Brooks

J. Reid Parker
Director of Athletics

J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks, a finalist for Sports Business Journal's Athletic Director of the Year in 2023, continues to lead the University of Georgia Athletic Association through historic success.

Georgia Athletics boasts remarkable accomplishments over the last three years, including a No. 7 final ranking in the 2023 LEARFIELD Directors Cup — Georgia's highest mark in 18 years, a record-setting student-athlete GPA in each of the last two academic campaigns, unparalleled fundraising and over 15 capital projects that have been completed or are in progress.

Bulldog athletic teams have won three team national championships and a total of seven SEC crowns, while there have been 15 individual national champions.

The women's soccer and volleyball teams have made the NCAA tournament in back-to-back years for the first-time ever. The baseball program advanced to a NCAA Super Regional for the first time since 2008 during Wes Johnson's first season as head coach. Keidane McAlpine guided the soccer team to the 2023 SEC Championship, finishing with its highest ranking ever at No. 13 nationally.

In addition to back-to-back national titles in 2021 and 2022, Georgia's football team boasts an incredible 39-0 regular season record during Brooks' three-year tenure. They have also recorded three-straight 12-0 regular seasons – the first time in SEC lore a program has done so. The Bulldogs enter the 2024 campaign having won an SEC and school record 27-straight regular season conference games and riding a school record 25-game home win streak.

From academic and athletic success to historic fundraising and a multitude of facility projects, Brooks has continued to sustain Georgia's standing as a national powerhouse. The Georgia Bulldog Club set new fundraising records in each of the last three years with $86.4 million raised in 2022, $102 million in 2023 and $113 million in 2024.

Brooks has overseen substantial facility upgrades that include the brand-new Lindsey Hopkins Indoor Tennis Courts, improvements to the south side of Sanford Stadium, a $45 million renovation to Foley Field, a $38 million upgrade to the Jack Turner Softball Stadium, a new $1.8 million men's and women's basketball weight room as well as expansive updates to Stegeman Coliseum and a renovation project in the Butts-Mehre Heritage Hall.

Georgia also built a new, state-of-the-art track and field locker room and recently announced plans to construct a one-of-a-kind track facility off South Milledge Avenue. This project will include the only indoor track and field venue in the state of Georgia and will allow the Bulldogs to host NCAA and SEC events as well as summer camps.

While facility upgrades have been at the forefront, Georgia's emphasis on Name, Image, and Likeness has further enhanced its commitment to the student-athlete experience. Georgia Athletics was one of the first departments to announce a comprehensive NIL program, which provides wide-ranging education, multi-media management tools and brand-building training. The Bulldogs became one of the first schools to build an in-house NIL department with an Athlete Manager to help student-athletes navigate this space.

Under his guidance, Georgia re-branded the mental health and performance department, bringing in a new full-time director and an additional clinical counselor as well as adding sports psychology services for every team. A Diversity, Equity and Inclusion committee was also established as Courtney Gay was hired to lead in the department's DEI efforts.

A native of Hammond, La., Brooks' vision of competing for championships and postseason success and his passion for student-athletes began well before his time as Athletic Director. Before returning to UGA in 2016 as Executive Associate Director of Athletics, Brooks served as Deputy Athletics Director at the University of Louisiana Monroe from 2015-16 and Director of Athletics at Millsaps College from 2014-15. He also served in capacities as Director of Football Operations (2008-11) and Assistant and Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations (2012-14) in his previous stint at UGA.

Brooks also served as director of football operations at the University of Louisiana-Monroe beginning in 2004. He gained experience as a student at Louisiana State University, working as an equipment manager and a student assistant coach. During his four years at LSU, the Tigers participated in the 2000 Peach Bowl, 2002 Sugar Bowl, and won the 2001 Southeastern Conference championship.

Brooks graduated from LSU ('02) with a degree in Kinesiology and completed his master's degree in Sport Management from UGA ('14). He and his wife, Lillie, have twin sons, Jackson and James, born in July of 2009 and a third son, Davis, born in March of 2012.

He and his wife Lillie have become a vital part of the Athens community. On January 20, 2021, just two weeks after becoming Athletic Director, Brooks pledged $100,000 to create a need-based scholarship to support UGA students from Athens-Clarke County. His gift created a Georgia Commitment Scholarship (GCS), adding to the more than 550 endowed, need-based scholarships created under the GCS program since its launch in January 2017.

Jere W. Morehead

President
University of Georgia

President Jere W. Morehead began his tenure as the 22nd University of Georgia president on July 1, 2013. Under his leadership, UGA has risen in the rankings of the best public colleges and universities and has completed a series of initiatives to enhance student learning and success, including a requirement for experiential learning for all undergraduates.

Additionally during President Morehead's tenure, the university completed the most successful capital campaign in its history and established the UGA Innovation District, through which students and faculty partner with industry leaders to create products and enterprises that strengthen Georgia's economy. UGA has increased its research expenditures by more than 50% over the past decade and is ranked first in the nation for the number of research-based products reaching the marketplace.

In keeping with his focus on student success, President Morehead launched the ALL Georgia program to support students from rural areas and created the Double Dawgs program, which enables students to save time and money by earning an undergraduate and graduate degree in five years or less. Demand for a UGA education has more than doubled during the past decade, and the university's enrollment reached an all-time high last fall.

President Morehead has served the University of Georgia for more than 35 years in both faculty and administrative roles. Before becoming president, he was senior vice president for academic affairs and provost from 2010 to 2013. Prior to 2010, he held several key administrative assignments, including vice president for instruction, vice provost for academic affairs, associate provost and director of the Honors Program, and acting executive director of Legal Affairs.

He is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business, and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export controls to jury selection. He has served as editor-in-chief of the American Business Law Journal.

President Morehead currently serves as co-chair of the University Leadership Forum, a national initiative led by the Council on Competitiveness. Additional service includes membership on the boards of the Georgia Research Alliance, Georgia Chamber of Commerce, Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education, Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, and Emory University Candler School of Theology. He also is a member of the National Football Foundation board of trustees.

He is the immediate past chair of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I board of directors. He previously served as president of the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and chair of the SEC executive committee and as a member of the NCAA's board of governors; presidential forum; working group on name, image, and likeness; and federal and state legislation working group.

In 2021, he received the Chief Executive Leadership Award from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education District III for outstanding leadership and service in support of education. He has received several university-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award—UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence, the Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award. He also earned the UGA School of Law's premier honor for alumni, the Distinguished Service Scroll Award. Following a nearly $12 million capital campaign, the University System of Georgia Board of Regents named the Honors College at the University of Georgia in his honor.

No. 1 Georgia 34, No. 14 Clemson 3

Aug. 31, 2024 • Mercedes-Benz Stadium • Atlanta

ATLANTA, Ga. — Led by a stifling performance from its defense, the top-ranked Georgia football team opened its 2024 season Saturday with a dominant 34-3 win over No. 14 Clemson in the Aflac Kickoff Game in front of a sellout crowd of 78,827 inside Mercedes-Benz Stadium and a national audience on ABC.

The Bulldogs (1-0) were leading 20-3 in the fourth quarter when quarterback Carson Beck hit sophomore wide receiver London Humphreys for a 40-yard touchdown to lift much of the crowd of 78,827 to its feet and blow the game open with 9:57 remaining. Beck finished 23 of 33 passing for 278 yards and two touchdowns, the Georgia offense racked up 447 yards, and the Bulldog defense, which got an interception from safety Malaki Starks in the fourth quarter, held the Tigers (0-1) to just 188 yards.

The Bulldogs opened their season with a win for the 11th year in a row. In 2021, the Bulldogs pulled out a 10-3 win over the Tigers in Charlotte, N.C., to open the season. Not unlike that defense-dominated matchup, neither offense got much going early in this year's meeting, and the game was scoreless after the opening quarter. In the second, Georgia's offense continued what became a methodical, 12-play drive that ended with a 30-yard Peyton Woodring field goal and a 3-0 lead.

Later in the second, Woodring blasted a career-long 55-yard field goal to make it 6-0 Georgia with 4:16 to play in the quarter.

Georgia got the ball to start the second half and quickly went to work. Receiver Arian Smith ran the ball for seven yards on first down and then had a 32-yard reception on the next play. Wideout Dillon Bell ran for 27 yards up the left side, and soon after, Beck hit receiver Colbie Young for a seven-yard touchdown and a 13-0 lead with 12:01 to play in the third.

Clemson put together its best drive on the ensuing possession and had a first down at the Georgia 7. But the Bulldogs held the Tigers to a 26-yard Nolan Hauser field goal that cut the Georgia lead to 13-3 with 6:34 to go in the third quarter.

The Bulldogs responded with another touchdown drive. This one began with a short pass from Beck to tailback Nate Frazier that led to a 24-yard gain — and ended with a 1-yard Frazier run for the score and a 20-3 lead with 3:15 remaining in the quarter. Georgia also got a 23-yard completion from Beck to wideout London Humphrey on third-and-10 to keep the drive going.

Early in the fourth, Beck found Humphrey for the 40-yard score that made it 27-3. Later in the period, after Starks' interception, Cash Jones ran the ball in from the 15 to push the lead to 34-3. Linebacker Jalon Walker led the defense with six tackles, including 1.5 sacks.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"Anytime you play in Atlanta in this facility and it's part of a title-sponsor game where you're playing another top-15, top-20 (team), to me it feels like a playoff game. It's a great way to try to assess where you are as a team."

Freshman Nate Frazier ran for 83 yards and scored on a 1-yard run.

No. 1 Georgia 48, Tennessee Tech 3

Sept. 7, 2024 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens

ATHENS, Ga. — Led by five touchdown passes from quarterback Carson Beck, the top-ranked Georgia football team earned its 26th consecutive win at Sanford Stadium on Saturday, routing Tennessee Tech 48-3 in the Bulldogs' home opener. The victory, in front of a crowd of 93,033 and a national audience on SEC Network+.

Beck completed his first 11 passes, for 111 yards, and threw three touchdown passes in the first half. Beck sat out much of the second half after the game was a runaway, ending up 18 of 25 passing for 242 yards and five touchdowns. Beck is the eighth Georgia passer to throw five TD passes in a game.

While the Georgia (2-0) offense piled up 498 yards, averaging 8.2 yards per play, the Bulldog defense held the Golden Eagles (0-2) to 134 yards of total offense and just 2.8 yards per play. Tech's only points came on a 32-yard field goal on the game's final play.

On Tech's first play from scrimmage, the Golden Eagles were stopped for a four-yard loss. The first time a Georgia player got his hands on the ball was when Anthony Evans III returned the Golden Eagles' first punt, going 46 yards down to the Tech 22-yard line. On the Bulldogs' first offensive play, Beck hit wide receiver Dillon Bell on the left edge of the end zone for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead less than three minutes into the game.

After the Bulldog defense forced another punt, the Georgia offense kept rolling. On third-and-11 at the UGA 41, Beck hit Oscar Delp for 13 yards. On the next play, Beck hit Dominic Lovett for 12, followed by a 14-yard completion to Arian Smith. A short pass to Brandon Robinson on the next play resulted in a 14-yard gain, and on first-and-goal at the 6, Beck connected with Colbie Young for a six-yard touchdown and a 14-0 lead.

The Bulldogs later got a 27-yard Peyton Woodring to push their lead to 17-0 with 11:45 to play in the half. And just before halftime, Georgia took a 24-0 lead after Beck hit Lovett for a 10-yard touchdown.

Georgia got the ball to open the second half, and soon another Beck pass was in the air for a touchdown. This time, on first down at the 50, Beck lofted one deep to Smith for the 50-yard score and a 31-0 lead.

Tech fumbled on its next drive, the game's first turnover, and safety Dan Jackson recovered the loose ball at the 27. Soon after, following a penalty, Beck lofted an easy pass to an open Lawson Luckie on the left side for a 37-yard touchdown and a 37-0 lead.

Gunner Stockton took over at quarterback midway through the third quarter and led the Bulldogs on another touchdown drive, with Branson Robinson scoring on a 13-yard rush. Stockton finished the game 10 of 12 passing for 90 yards. Woodring kicked a 32-yard field goal with 3:07 remaining in the game to make it 48-0 Bulldogs.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"It's awesome being home. Every time you walk into Sanford Stadium and see it packed — I give our fans credit, they were in the heat, they fought the heat and came and were loud, especially early. I think it was good entertainment; we scored on that first play on offense and got things rolling in the first half. I was proud of our fans."

Carson Beck threw five touchdown passes against Tennessee Tech.

No. 1 Georgia 13, Kentucky 12

Sept. 14, 2024 • Kroger Field • Lexington, Ky.

LEXINGTON, Ky. — The top-ranked Georgia football team scratched and clawed its way to a 13-12 win over Kentucky in the Bulldogs' SEC opener Saturday night in front of a crowd of 61,663 at Kroger Field and a national television audience on ABC.

Down 9-3 in the third quarter of a game dominated by the defenses, the Bulldogs got a 30-yard Peyton Woodring field goal and a three-yard Branson Robinson touchdown to take the lead for good.

The win is Georgia's 42nd in a row during the regular season, 28th straight in SEC regular-season games, and the program's 15th straight over Kentucky. Georgia had just 63 yards of offense in the first half before finding some rhythm and hitting some big plays in the second to finish with 262.

Georgia's defense held Kentucky to 284 yards, 3.9 yards per play, and forced a turnover that led to a Bulldog field goal. Cornerback Daylen Everette led the defense with eight tackles, including six solo. Eleven Bulldogs had at least four stops.

Kentucky took a 3-0 lead on a school-record 55-yard Alex Raynor field goal with 2:45 left in the opening quarter. The field goal marked the first first-half points that the Bulldogs had allowed this season.

In the second quarter, consecutive 15-yard penalties on Georgia's defense, plus a 15-yard Brock Vandagriff run on third-and-12, put the Wildcats in Georgia territory. A Tyrion Ingram-Dawkins sack led to a six-yard loss. On the next play, Raylen Wilson sacked and stripped Vandagriff, and Damon Wilson II recovered the ball for Georgia at the Kentucky 23.

The turnover led to a 34-yard Woodring field goal, tying the game 3-3 with 3:48 to play in the half. The Wildcats answered with a drive inside the Georgia 20 and another Raynor field goal, this one a 32-yarder that put Kentucky ahead 6-3 at the half.

The Wildcats got the ball to start the second half and drove down to the Bulldog 22 before having to settle for a 40-yard Raynor field goal that pushed the Kentucky lead to 9-3.

Georgia's offense had its best drive of the game on the ensuing possession, with Beck completing a 33-yard pass to Lovett, followed soon after by a 20-yard completion to Dillon Bell. However, the Bulldogs eventually had to settle for a 30-yard Woodring field goal.

The Bulldog defense forced a three-and-out on Kentucky's next drive, and the offense took over at the Georgia 32. Trevor Etienne touched the ball on five straight plays on the drive, resulting in 49 yards, and Robinson ran the ball in from the 3 for a touchdown and the Bulldogs' first lead of the game, 13-9, with 12:20 to play.

Kentucky answered with an 11-play drive that resulted in a 51-yard Raynor field goal, cutting the Bulldog lead to 13-12 with 8:01 remaining. Neither team was able to produce any points after that.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"I don't know that we can rest and recover (next week). I mean, that's what people think bye weeks mean. We've got to find a way to improve and get better. You know, we were really beat up coming into this game, specifically at one position (defensive line), and it was a really tough week for us."

Damon Wilson II recovered a fumble in the second quarter of the Bulldogs' 15th straight win over Kentucky.

No. 4 Alabama 41, No. 2 Georgia 34

Sept. 28, 2024 • Bryant-Denny Stadium • Tuscaloosa, Ala.

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. — The No. 2-ranked Georgia football team suffered its first regular-season defeat since 2020 on Saturday night, falling 41-34 to No. 4 Alabama in a wild game in front of a crowd of 100,077 at Bryant-Denny Stadium and a national audience on ABC.

The Crimson Tide jumped out in front early with three first-quarter touchdowns, forcing the Bulldogs to play catch-up. Despite outscoring the Tide 27-11 in the second half, and briefly taking the lead late in the fourth quarter, the Bulldogs came up short in the end.

In a game with more than 1,000 yards of offense, Alabama finished with 547, while Georgia gained 519. Georgia's defense had allowed just 18 points on six field goals coming into the game, and the offense had zero turnovers through three games before committing four Saturday.

Quarterback Jalen Milroe scored on a seven-yard run for a Tide 7-0 lead with 10:11 left in the first quarter. Alabama went ahead 14-0 on a Milroe 16-yard touchdown pass to Jamarion Miller.

The Bulldogs' next drive ended when Domani Jackson intercepted a Carson Beck pass in Georgia territory and returned it to the UGA 22. Three plays later, Germie Bernard ran for a seven-yard touchdown and a 21-0 lead. Alabama scored again on its next drive when Milroe got free on fourth-and-1 and ran 36 yards for the touchdown and a 28-0 lead.

The Bulldog offense got going on its next possession, scoring on Trevor Etienne's seven-yard run to cut the lead to 28-7 with 6:43 left in the half. Alabama's final points of the half came on a safety, pushing the lead to 30-7 at halftime.

The Bulldogs cut Alabama's lead to 30-15 with 5:06 left in the third on a 12-yard touchdown catch by Arian Smith. Georgia converted two fourth-down plays on the drive and drew a penalty on Alabama on a third attempt. Beck hit Lawson Luckie in the end zone to convert the two-point attempt.

Alabama's Graham Nicholson kicked a 28-yard field goal with 1:23 to play in the third to push the Tide's lead to 33-15. Georgia cut the lead to 33-21 with 9:46 left in the game when Beck hit Luckie for an eight-yard touchdown.

Two big completions got the Bulldogs to the Tide 1 on their next drive. Beck connected with Cash Jones for a 30-yard gain, followed immediately by a 47-yard strike to Smith. Two plays later, Dillon Bell ran the ball in for a three-yard touchdown, trimming Alabama's lead to 33-27 with 5:39 to go.

Georgia's defense forced Alabama to punt on its next drive and the Bulldogs got the ball back at their 33 with a chance for the lead with 2:42 remaining. And on the first play, Beck hit Bell down the middle for a 67-yard touchdown to take a 34-33 lead with 2:31 remaining.

But the lead was short-lived. On the first play of Alabama's ensuing drive, Milroe connected with Ryan Williams for a 75-yard touchdown, and a successful two-point conversion made it 41-34 Tide with 2:18 to play.

Georgia had one last possession and drove into Alabama territory. On fourth-and-8 at the Tide 34, Beck hit Luckie for 14 yards to the 22. Beck's next pass was intercepted in the end zone with 43 seconds left.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"In the second half, we played some tighter coverage. We made some stops. We possessed the ball on offense. When you make stops, you give yourself a chance."

No. 5 Georgia 31, Auburn 13

Oct. 5, 2024 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens

ATHENS, Ga. — Trevor Etienne rushed for two touchdowns, Carson Beck threw for two more, and the No. 5-ranked Georgia football team earned its eighth straight win over Auburn, 31-13, in front of a sellout, homecoming crowd of 93,033 at Sanford Stadium and a national audience on ABC.

Georgia finished with 381 yards, while the Tigers gained 337. Georgia now leads the all-time series with Auburn 65-56-8. Beck completed 23 of 29 passes for 240 yards and the two touchdowns, while Etienne did it all, rushing 16 times for 88 yards and the two TDs and catching six passes for 36. Defensive end Tyrion Ingram-Dawkins had a pair of sacks to help pace the strong showing from the defense.

The Bulldog offense got the scoring started with an 11-play, 75-yard drive that ended with an Etienne two-yard rush up the middle for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead with 6:24 remaining in the first quarter. Etienne had three rushes and two receptions on the drive, including a nine-yarder on a screen pass down to the 1-yard line.

The Tigers drove deep into Georgia territory on their next possession and had a first down at the 12. On third-and-6 at the 8, defensive end Mykel Williams tackled Thorne for a 1-yard loss. Auburn's Towns McGough kicked a 27-yard field goal to cut the Georgia lead to 7-3.

The second quarter was scoreless until the Bulldogs got the ball back with 1:02 on the clock. On first down at the Auburn 49, Beck hit Dominic Lovett for eight yards, followed by a one-yard completion to Etienne. On the next play, Etienne got loose on the right side for a 23-yard gain to the Tiger 17. Two plays later, Beck found Lovett on the left hash for an 11-yard touchdown, and a 14-3 lead.

Auburn managed to complete a couple of passes to get into field-goal range before halftime, and McGough's 54-yard attempt as time expired was blocked by safety Dan Jackson.

With 9:45 left in the third, Tigers running back Jarquez Hunter got free around the right side and went 38 yards for a touchdown, cutting the UGA lead to 14-10. But the game got no closer.

Georgia ran the ball on nine of 12 plays on the ensuing drive and scored a touchdown on Etienne's one-yard plunge. The back's second TD of the game pushed the Bulldogs' lead to 21-10 with 3:50 to play in the third.

Auburn got aggressive on its next possession and went for it on fourth and-1 at its 44-yard line. A Thorne run play was blown up from the start and linebacker Raylen Wilson got the tackle for a loss of four at the 40. Georgia took advantage of the great field position and later scored on a three-yard pass from Beck to Bell, making it a 28-10 game with 12:34 remaining.

The Tigers cut the lead to 28-13 with 7:38 left on McGough's 26-yard field goal. Auburn had a first-and-goal at the 10 but the Bulldog defense kept them out of the end zone. Kicker Peyton Woodring added a bit of insurance with a 47-yard field goal with 1:50 to make it 31-13.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"I thought the run game was good for us. I thought we were really close to hitting those explosives, and I feel like we left more out there. We have good backs. ... A couple of those times I thought we could cash them in, but we did make a lot of plays in the run game."

Dillon Bell (86) caught a 3-yard touchdown in the fourth quarter.

No. 5 Georgia 41, Mississippi State 31

Oct. 12, 2024 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens

ATHENS, Ga. — Fifth-ranked Georgia amassed 605 yards of offense in a 41-31 win over Mississippi State in front of a sellout crowd of 93,033 at Sanford Stadium and a national audience on SEC Network.

Quarterback Carson Beck threw for a career-high 459 yards and three touchdowns, completing passes to 11 different receivers. Five different Bulldogs caught four or more passes; wideout Arian Smith had five for a career-high 134 yards and a touchdown.

On Georgia's second offensive play, a Beck pass was tipped and intercepted by cornerback Brice Pollock at the UGA 26-yard line. State's Kyle Ferrie later kicked a 47-yard field goal to put MSU ahead 3-0.

Georgia answered with a 10-play drive that ended with a 45-yard Peyton Woodring field goal to tie the game. Woodring later added a 32-yarder in the second quarter.

After the defense got another quick stop — State had a total of seven yards after three possessions — Georgia's offense drove 81 yards for the game's first touchdown. Branson Robinson put Georgia up 10-3 with a 5-yard run with 2:13 left in the quarter.

State cut the lead to 13-10 on a 24-yard touchdown pass from Michael Van Buren Jr. to Kelly Akharaiyi. Georgia produced some big plays of its own on the ensuing possession, and Beck hit Dillon Bell in the back of the end zone for a 31-yard score and a 20-10 lead.

Later in the second, Beck found Smith down the left hash for a 55-yard gain to the MSU 25. A few plays later, running back Cash Jones caught a direct snap in the backfield, handed the ball off to Beck, and the quarterback then lofted a pass to tight end Oscar Delp for a 17-yard gain to the 1. Tight end Lawson Luckie caught a 1-yard TD pass for a 27-10 lead.

Safety KJ Bolden picked off the first pass of his career on State's final drive of the half, giving UGA the ball at its 19 with 27 seconds left. Woodring attempted a 55-yard field goal as time expired but was wide left.

During the Bulldogs' first drive of the third, Beck hit tight end Ben Yurosek up the left side for a 29-yard gain, and on the next play, Beck found Smith for a 42-yard touchdown and a 34-10 lead.

State answered with a 19-yard rushing touchdown by Johnnie Daniels, cutting Georgia's lead to 34-17 with 8:27 left in the third. After another Beck interception, Van Buren hit running back Davon Booth for a touchdown on fourth-and-goal from the 2.

At the end of the 16-play, 81-yard drive that took 7:26 off the clock, running back Trevor Etienne plowed into the end zone from the 1 to give Georgia a 41-24 lead with 3:33 to play. Beck's 36th completion of the game, a 21-yarder to Bell on the left side to the MSU 4, gave the quarterback a new career-high in passing yardage and tied the school single-game record for completions.

State's final touchdown was a 35-yard completion to Akharaiyi with 1:47 remaining that made it a 41-31 game.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"We started fast and did some good things. ... I thought we gave them 14 points on defense, and if you take those 14 points away, I feel pretty good about the game. But we absolutely just handed them 14."

Branson Robinson scored on a 5-yard run in the second quarter.

No. 5 Georgia 30, No. 1 Texas 15

Oct. 19, 2024 • DKR-Texas Memorial Stadium • Austin, Texas

AUSTIN, Texas — The fifth-ranked Georgia football team went on the road and knocked off top-ranked Texas, 30-15, in front of a sellout crowd of 105,215 at Darrell K Royal-Texas Memorial Stadium and a national audience on ABC.

The Bulldogs overcame three interceptions by Carson Beck thanks in large part to a defensive effort that largely held one of college football's top offenses — 43.2 points per game coming into the game — in check. Georgia finished with 10 tackles for loss and seven sacks, with linebacker Jalon Walker getting three sacks and a fumble recovery.

Georgia was held to 283 yards of offense and converted just 6 of 17 third-down attempts, but it made enough plays when it had to, including running back Trevor Etienne's three touchdown runs. And kicker Peyton Woodring connected on field goals from 33, 48 and 44 yards. Texas, which was held to 38 yards in the first half, finished with 259.

Two of Beck's interceptions came in the first quarter, but the UGA defense didn't allow Texas to capitalize. Meanwhile, the Bulldogs forced their own turnover when cornerback Daylen Everette blitzed, sacked quarterback Quinn Ewers, forced a fumble, and recovered it at the Texas 13.

Georgia made the most of the turnover, scoring on a two-yard run by Etienne to take a 7-0 lead with six seconds left in the quarter. Etienne had 33 yards rushing and 23 receiving on seven touches in the opening quarter. Woodring's 33-yard field goal pushed the Bulldogs' lead to 10-0 with 10:46 left in the half.

Everette produced another turnover on Texas' next drive, intercepting Ewers at the Longhorn 34. Three plays later, after a 17-yard completion to Dominic Lovett, Etienne ran the ball in for a 15-yard touchdown. After another defensive stop, Woodring booted a 48-yard field goal to push the lead to 20-0.

Later in the half, Damon Wilson II sacked Arch Manning and forced a fumble that Walker recovered at the Texas 30 with 25 seconds left. Georgia then closed out the half with a 44-yard Woodring field goal to go up 23-0.

The Longhorns' first drive of the second half ended with a two-yard touchdown pass to Isaiah Bond, followed by a successful two-point attempt, cutting the Georgia lead to 23-8. Late in the third, after a controversial UT interception, Ewers hit Jaydon Blue for a 17-yard touchdown, cutting the lead to 23-15.

Georgia's final touchdown came on fourth down at the 1, when Etienne scored to make it 30-15 with 12:04 remaining. The Bulldog defense held off the Longhorns the rest of the way.

The Bulldogs' seventh sack of the game came when the Longhorns went for it on fourth-and-6 at the Georgia 37. Williams sacked and stripped Ewers and Wilson recovered at the UGA 44 with 10:23 to play.

The Georgia defense later turned the Longhorns over on downs at the Bulldog 19 with 5:26 left in the game. The defense did it again with 1:10 remaining to seal the victory.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"It's pretty cool to hit that number (100 wins) because when I started I thought that was unreachable, unattainable. Now in 10 years, 9 years, I don't know how many years it is, we get there. It's a credit to this university and the support we have that we've been able to do that."

Jalon Walker led the defense with three sacks and a fumble recovery.

No. 2 Georgia 34, Florida 20

Nov. 2, 2024 • EverBank Stadium • Jacksonville, Fla.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — The No. 2-ranked Georgia football came up with several big plays late in the game to knock off Florida, 34-20, on Saturday afternoon in front of a crowd of 73,607 at EverBank Stadium and a national audience on ABC.

With the game tied 20-20, Georgia quarterback Carson Beck connected with wide receiver Dominic Lovett for a 10-yard touchdown with 4:01 to go. That was followed soon after by an interception by linebacker CJ Allen, and Dwight Phillips, Jr. later scored on a 4-yard run to seal the victory.

The Bulldogs moved the ball all the way down to the Florida 5-yard line on their second drive of the game before having to settle for a 23-yard Peyton Woodring field goal and a 3-0 lead with 2:10 left in the first quarter.

Florida produced the first turnover of the game early in the second quarter, intercepting a Beck pass at the Georgia 43. On the next play, Gator quarterback DJ Lagway hit wideout Aidan Mizell for a 43-yard touchdown and a 7-3 Florida lead with 13:42 left in the half.

The Gators picked off another Beck pass on Georgia's next drive, taking over at the Florida 49. The Gators drove inside the 15 before the Bulldog defense forced them to settle for a 32-yard Trey Smack field goal.

With 43 seconds left in the half, Woodring kicked a 53-yard field goal to cut the Florida lead to 10-6. The Gators, playing with backup quarterback Aidan Warner after Lagway left the game earlier in the quarter with an injury, answered with a 53-yarder from Smack to make it 13-6 Florida at halftime.

The Gators forced another turnover over on Georgia's first drive of the third, intercepting Beck, who was hit as he threw, for the third time. The Bulldog defense forced a quick three-and-out, with cornerback Daylen Everette tackling Warner for a 3-yard loss on third down, to get the ball back.

Georgia then tied things up 13-13 with 7:01 left in the third. Beck completed passes of 9 and 17 yards to Lovett, Dillon Bell ran 33 yards to the Florida 15 and later caught an 11-yard pass to the 2, and Frazier capped the drive with a 2-yard touchdown run.

Florida's next drive ended with a bad snap on a long field-goal attempt, with the Gators losing 31 yards on the play and Georgia taking over at the Florida 36. The Bulldogs then went ahead 20-13 on a 22-yard touchdown catch by Cash Jones out of the backfield.

The Gators tied the game on a 15-yard Ja'Kobi Jackson touchdown run, making it 20-20 with 7:29 remaining. Georgia then drove 75 yards in seven plays and scored on the 10-yard touchdown pass from Beck to Lovett. Earlier in the drive, facing a third-and-7 at the Bulldog 28, Beck connected with Arian Smith for a 34-yard gain to the Gator 38. That was followed by a 21-yard completion to Lawson Luckie down to the 17.

Allen picked off Warner on Florida's next drive, and Phillips ran the ball in soon after to put the game away with 3:03 remaining.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"The difference in the game was our fans gave us some momentum, gave us some energy there, (and we) had some big defensive stops. Obviously you cannot turn the ball over and beat good teams. And make no mistake about it, Florida's a much improved team."

Dominic Lovett had seven catches for 52 yards and a touchdown.

Nov. 9, 2024 • Vaught-Hemingway Stadium • Oxford, Miss.

OXFORD, Miss. — The No. 3-ranked Georgia football team fell to No. 16 Ole Miss, 28-10, on a rainy Saturday afternoon in front of a crowd of 68,126 at Vaught-Hemingway Stadium and a national audience on ABC.

The Bulldogs went ahead 7-0 early but struggled to get much going after that, suffering a second regular-season loss for the first time since 2020. Quarterback Carson Beck completed 20 of 31 passes for 185 yards, while the Georgia rushing attack was held to 76 yards on 31 attempts.

The Georgia defense got off to a great start, stopping Rebel quarterback Jaxson Dart for a 1-yard run on the first play, sacking him for a loss of 6 on the second, and then safety Dan Jackson intercepted a Dart pass at the Rebel 34 and returned it 13 yards to the 21 on the third play.

Georgia's offense took full advantage of the turnover. Trevor Etienne ran the ball four times in a row to get to the Rebel 4. Later, on fourth-and-goal at the 2, Nate Frazier ran the ball in on the right side for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead with 10:32 left in the opening quarter.

Austin Simmons took over at quarterback for Ole Miss on its second drive and led the Rebels 75 yards for a touchdown. The Rebels converted a fourth-and-1 at the Georgia 44 and later scored on a 9-yard run by Ulysses Bentley, tying the game with 6:53 to play in the first.

Dart returned for the Rebels' third drive and led them down to the UGA 6-yard line, where the Bulldogs forced Ole Miss to settle for a 33-yard Caden Davis field goal and a 10-7 Rebel lead with 3:01 on the clock.

The Rebels added a 43-yard Davis field goal with 12:12 left in the half to push their lead to 13-7. Ole Miss later got a 53-yard Davis field goal to make it 16-7 with 2:55 to play until halftime.

Georgia opened the second half with a 70-yard drive that included four plays of at least 12 yards, but the Bulldogs ultimately had to settle for a 23-yard Peyton Woodring field goal that cut the Rebels' lead to 16-10.

Ole Miss answered with a 75-yard touchdown drive that ended with a 10-yard pass to Antwane Wells in the back of the end zone. Georgia stopped the two-point attempt, holding the Rebels' lead to 22-10.

After being held to 69 yards in the first half, Georgia gained 138 in the third quarter, but only managed a field goal. The Bulldogs had the ball as the fourth began and moved the ball down to the Rebel 27, but a fourth-and-10 Beck pass was tipped and intercepted with 7:22 left in the game.

Ole Miss added a 25-yard Davis field goal with 3:22 remaining to extend the Rebels' lead to 25-10. Ole Miss sacked and stripped Beck on Georgia's next drive, recovering the fumble at the Georgia 19. The Rebels tacked on a 32-yard Davis field goal with 1:11 remaining to make it 28-10.

Linebacker CJ Allen led the Georgia defense with eight tackles and two QB hurries. Linebacker Jalon Walker and defensive back Malaki Starks had six tackled each.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"We obviously struggled in a lot of areas. We had miscues, mistakes, penalties, things that are really hard to overcome, especially when you play a really good football team — and they are."

Trevor Etienne and the Georgia ground attack were held to 59 yards.

- Senior Tate Ratledge returned to start at right guard, his first start since the Kentucky game on Sept. 14. He missed the next four games with an ankle injury and then saw action last week versus Florida. Also of note, senior linebacker Smael Mondon Jr., saw his first action after missing the past four games due to injury.
- The Bulldog offense turned the ball over three times, but the defense limited Ole Miss to just three points off those takeaways. Georgia has scored 55 points off 12 turnovers this season, while its opponents have scored 37 points off 15 turnovers
- Kicker Peyton Woodring's 23-yard field goal in third quarter was his 15th make in 16 attempts this season. The sophomore is 36-for-41 in his career.
- Dominic Lovett led the receivers with four catches for 41 yards, while four other Bulldogs had three receptions. Nine players had at least one catch.
- Ole Miss' Micah Davis had a 2-yard return after a 48-yard Brett Thorson punt in the first quarter. It was the first punt return for positive yards that Georgia has allowed all season.
- The captains for the game were wide receiver Dillon Bell, linebacker Jalon Walker, defensive lineman Mykel Williams and tight end Ben Yurosek. The Bulldogs won the toss and deferred to the second half.

No. 12 Georgia 31, No. 7 Tennessee 17

Nov. 16, 2024 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens

ATHENS, Ga. — The No. 12-ranked Georgia football team rallied from a 10-0 deficit and held No. 7 Tennessee scoreless in the second half in the Bulldogs' 31-17 win in front of a sellout crowd of 93,033 at Sanford Stadium and a national audience on ABC.

Quarterback Carson Beck paced the Bulldogs offense with 347 yards passing, throwing a pair of first-half touchdown passes to tight end Oscar Delp and running for the go-ahead score in the third quarter. Beck completed passes to 10 different receivers, with tight ends Ben Yurosek and Delp combining for nine receptions for 106 yards.

Relying heavily on the passing attack, Georgia finished with 453 yards of offense while holding Tennessee to 313 yards, more than 150 below the Vols' average. Linebackers Jalon Walker and Smael Mondon Jr. and defensive back KJ Bolden all had eight tackles. Linebacker Chaz Chambliss added a pair of sacks.

The Volunteers went ahead on their first drive, scoring on third-and-goal at the 1 when tight end Miles Kitselman lined up in the backfield, took the handoff and dove over the pile for a 7-0 Tennessee lead.

Later in the first, Georgia punter Brett Thorson saved a touchdown with an open-field tackle after a 26-yard return. The Vols started their next drive at the UGA 37, but they didn't get much closer. The defense forced Tennessee to settle for a 52-yard Max Gilbert field goal and a 10-0 lead.

On the second play of the second quarter, Beck scrambled for 14 yards to the 21. Two plays later, he found Delp in the back of the end zone for a touchdown, cutting the UT lead to 10-7 with 13:30 until halftime.

After a defensive stop, the Bulldog offense embarked on one of the more unusual drives of the season. There was a fumble that the officials after review ruled an incomplete pass, and then wideout Arian Smith caught a pass, fumbled and then recovered the ball about 10 yards down field, making it a 23-yard gain. Beck later found Delp in the back of the end zone for a 4-yard touchdown and a 14-10 lead.

Tennessee answered with a touchdown drive of its own, going ahead 17-14 with 1:54 to play in the half on Dylan Sampson's 27-yard run. Georgia was able to drive into Tennessee territory and tie the game 17-17 on Peyton Woodring's 36-yard field goal with 5 seconds to play in the half.

Georgia went on a long drive to take the lead in the third quarter, covering 87 yards in 12 plays. Beck ran through a big hole in the middle for the touchdown and a 24-17 lead — it's the first time the Vols have yielded more than 18 points all season — with 5:32 remaining in the period.

Frazier scored on a 2-yard run with 2:26 remaining in the game to put the Bulldogs ahead 31-17, capping a clock-bleeding drive that covered 92 yards in 12 plays.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"It was probably the best atmosphere that I've ever been a part of for a game like this. It was better than Notre Dame (in 2019) to me. It was a more meaningful game, a conference game at the end of the year. The crowd was electric."

Tight end Ben Yurosek led the Bulldogs with five receptions.

- Georgia's defense sacked quarterback Nico Iamaleava five times, with linebacker Chaz Chambliss getting two and linebackers Jalon Walker, Smael Mondon, Jr. and Damon Wilson II getting one each.
- With the victory, the 2024 senior class is an FBS-leading 50-4 which ties the school mark set by the 2023 Bulldog seniors who finished with a 50-4 record over their four seasons.
- The Bulldogs' TD drives covered 75, 84, 87 and a season-long 92 yards
- Sophomore Monroe Freeling made his first career start at left tackle, joining left guard Dylan Fairchild, center Jared Wilson, right guard Tate Ratledge and right tackle Xavier Truss on the offensive line. Fairchild and Truss are the only Bulldog linemen to start every game this season.
- Georgia's captains were wide receiver Dominic Lovett, offensive lineman Tate Ratledge, linebacker CJ Allen and linebacker Chaz Chambliss. Tennessee won the toss and deferred to the second half.

No. 10 Georgia 59, UMass 21

Nov. 23, 2024 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens

ATHENS, Ga. — The No. 10-ranked Georgia football team extended its school-record home winning streak to 30 games on Saturday with a 59-21 victory over UMass in front of a sellout crowd of 93,033 at Sanford Stadium and a national audience on SEC Network.

The Bulldogs celebrated Senior Day on Dooley Field prior to kickoff, and with the win the 2024 senior class became the most successful in program history with its 51st victory.

Georgia quarterback Carson Beck threw four touchdown passes and 297 yards. Running back Nate Frazier finished with career-highs in yards (136), touchdowns (3) and carries (21). Georgia ended up with 550 yards of offense to the Minutemen's 351.

On their first drive, the Minutemen got a 38-yard run from quarterback Ahmad Haston and CJ Hester later scored on a 1-yard run for a 7-0 lead. Georgia soon tied the game on tight end Oscar Delp's a 17-yard touchdown catch. Georgia's next drive featured a 49-yard completion from Beck to Arian Smith — plus a 15-yard penalty on UMass for roughing the passer. Later, on fourth-and-4 at the 8, Beck hit Cash Jones out of the backfield for an easy touchdown and a 14-7 lead.

The Bulldog offense was soon back on the field after defensive back KJ Bolden forced a fumble and linebacker Raylen Wilson recovered it at the UMass 28. A few plays later, senior wideout Dominic Lovett hauled in a 15-yard touchdown pass in the left corner of the end zone.

On their next drive, the Minutemen converted a pair of fourth-down plays and Jalen John capped a 14-play drive with a 3-yard touchdown run, cutting the UGA lead to 21-14 with 1:55 left in the half.

Beck led the Bulldogs on a quick scoring drive before halftime. Beck ran for 10 on one play, completed a 20-yard pass to wideout Cole Speer on another, and found Smith for a 34-yard touchdown down the middle with 43 seconds left for a 28-14 lead at halftime.

Georgia got a 53-yard Peyton Woodring field goal to start the third quarter, extending the lead to 31-14. UMass only needed two plays to answer with a touchdown. Quarterback AJ Hairston hit wideout Jakobie James-Keeney for a 75-yard score to cut Georgia's lead to 31-21.

Frazier did much of the work on Georgia's next drive, including scoring on a 9-yard run to push the Bulldog lead to 38-21. Despite fumbling twice on its next drive, Georgia was able to go ahead 45-21 on a 15-yard touchdown run by Frazier.

Frazier added a third touchdown, this one a 2-yarder, to make it 52-21 with 6:33 remaining. After linebacker Gabe Harris' sack and strip of the quarterback, linebacker Chris Cole returned the fumble 28 yards for the first defensive touchdown of the season for the Bulldogs.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"We were able to run the ball. When you can run the ball efficiently and you can throw and convert third downs, you're going to be really good — and we were able to run the ball and control the line of scrimmage."

Nate Frazier ran for 136 yards and three touchdowns in the win.

No. 7 Georgia 44, Georgia Tech 42 (8OT)

Nov. 29, 2024 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium • Athens

ATHENS, Ga. — In a game that almost wouldn't end, the No. 7-ranked Georgia football team rallied from 14 down in the fourth quarter and prevailed in the eighth overtime against Georgia Tech, 44-42, on Friday night in front of a sellout crowd of 93,033 at Sanford Stadium and a national audience on ABC.

Georgia trailed 17-0 at halftime and was behind 27-13 with 5:37 to play. Then came the rally. With 1:01 remaining, the Bulldogs drew even on Carson Beck's second touchdown pass to Dominic Lovett in the closing minutes. And in overtime, the teams traded scores and failed attempts until Georgia's defense stopped Tech and then Nate Frazier ran the ball in from the 3 for the win in the eighth extra period.

Tech went ahead 3-0 in the first quarter on a 31-yard Aidan Birr field goal. Birr later missed a 25-yarder when the ball hit the left upright and bounced away. The Yellow Jackets went up 10-0 on a 2-yard run by quarterback Haynes King. Tech made it 17-0 just before halftime on a 4-yard touchdown pass.

The Bulldogs got on the scoreboard with a 2-yard TD pass to tight end Oscar Delp. Georgia went for the two-point conversion but came up empty, making it 17-6 with 9:53 left in the third.

Georgia Tech then went on an 18-play drive that lasted more than 10 minutes and ended with a 23-yard field goal with 14:17 to go. The Bulldogs answered with a 1-yard Frazier touchdown run, making it 20-13. Tech went up 27-13 with 5:37 remaining after King ran 11 yards for a touchdown. Georgia quickly followed that with a 17-yard touchdown pass from Beck to Lovett with 3:39 leftg.

Georgia's defense gave the Bulldogs a chance. King was stripped by safety Dan Jackson and linebacker Chaz Chambliss recovered at the Tech 32 with 2:02 to play. The Bulldogs tied the game 27-27 with 1:01 remaining on Beck's 3-yard touchdown pass to the right side to Lovett.

In overtime, Georgia got the ball first and struck first, scoring on a 14-yard touchdown pass to wideout London Humphreys. Tech answered to force a second overtime, scoring on a 12-yard touchdown pass.

Tech got the ball first to start the second overtime and scored on King's 1-yard rush. On the mandatory two-point attempt in the second OT, Georgia's Smael Mondon Jr. broke up King's pass attempt. The Bulldogs tied the game on the first play of their possession, a 25-yard touchdown from Beck to Cash Jones. Georgia's two-try also came up empty.

Neither team could find the end zone in the third or fourth overtimes. In the fifth, Beck hit wideout Dillon Bell for the score, and Tech followed with a King scoring pass to Malik Rutherford. Both teams then came up empty in overtimes six and seven.

In the eighth OT, linebacker CJ Allen's pressure forced a Tech incomplete pass, and again Georgia was just one play away. On the Bulldogs' attempt, Frazier scooted through the middle for the victory.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"Those guys played really hard tonight. They had a good game plan. They played well enough to win. I'm talking about Georgia Tech. But our guys found a way to win. And at the end of the day, that's what this is all about."

Cash Jones caught a 25-yard touchdown pass in overtime.

No. 7 Georgia 22, No. 2 Texas 19 (OT)

Dec. 7, 2024 • Mercedes-Benz Stadium • Atlanta

ATLANTA, Ga. — In first SEC Championship Game to go to overtime in the event's 33-year history, No. 7 Georgia edged No. 2 Texas, 22-19, on Trevor Etienne's 4-yard touchdown run, earning the Bulldogs the 15th conference title in program history in front of a crowd of 74,916 at Mercedes-Benz Stadium and a national audience on ABC.

The Bulldogs had to turn to backup quarterback Gunner Stockton in the second half after starter Carson Beck was injured on the final play of the first. Stockton, a redshirt sophomore who had appeared in three games all season, answered the call on his first drive, leading Georgia to a touchdown and the lead.

In overtime, after Stockton lost his helmet on a run inside the 5-yard line, it was Beck who returned to the game and handed the ball off to Etienne on first-and-goal at the 4.

After missing three games with an injury, Etienne finished with 94 yards and two touchdowns rushing and five catches for 28 yards. Stockton was 12 of 16 passing for 71 yards, while Georgia's defense racked up 15 tackles for loss and cornerback Daylen Everette, the game's Most Valuable Player, had two interceptions.

Texas scored the only points of the first quarter, going ahead 3-0 on a 41-yard Bert Auburn field goal. The Longhorns later went up 6-0 with 10:22 left in the half on Auburn's 42-yard kick. Auburn missed two field goals later in the game that proved pivotal. Georgia's offense eventually going and with 6:41 left in the half, the Bulldogs cut Texas' lead to 6-3 with a 44-yard Peyton Woodring field goal.

On the final play of the half, Beck fumbled on a sack and suffered an elbow injury. Stockton started the second half and efficiently drove the Bulldogs down the field for their first touchdown. Three plays before Etienne ran the ball in for a 10-yard touchdown that put Georgia ahead 10-6, Stockton hit tight end Lawson Luckie on the run for a 19-yard gain. The play after that, Stockton ran 9 yards down to the 10. Late in the third, Etienne took off for a 48-yard gain to the Texas 19. The Bulldogs couldn't get back into the end zone, but Woodring booted a 24-yard field goal to put Georgia ahead 13-6.

Early in the fourth, Texas tied the game on a 41-yard touchdown pass from Quinn Ewers to DeAndre Moore Jr. The Longhorns forced what looked like a quick three-and-out on Georgia's next drive, but then the Bulldogs pulled off a successful fake with wideout Arian Smith catching a tap pass and running 9 yards for the first down on fourth-and-5. The drive ended with a 21-yard Woodring field goal to put the Bulldogs in front 16-13.

Texas picked off a Stockton pass with 2:30 remaining and eventually tied the game on Auburn's 37-yard field goal with 18 seconds left. Soon after, the teams were headed for overtime. Georgia's defense held Texas to a 32-yard field goal to begin the first overtime period, giving the Bulldogs a shot at the win with a touchdown.

A 4-yard completion to Delp on third-and-4 gave Georgia first down at the 14. Two plays later, Stockton ran the ball inside the 5 for a first-and-goal at the 4. With Stockton shaken up on the play, Beck returned and handed it off to Etienne for the SEC title-winning score.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"To me, Trevor Etienne, no respect to Daylen (Everette), I love Daylen, he had a big game and got the MVP — Trevor Etienne was the MVP. He came and said, 'Coach, I want to play this game. I came to this school because I want to win a championship.'"

Trevor Etienne scored the game-winning touchdown in OT.

No. 5 Notre Dame 23, No. 2 Georgia 10

Jan. 2, 2025 • Caesars Superdome • New Orleans

NEW ORLEANS — The No. 2 Georgia football team's season came to an end against No. 5 Notre Dame, 23-10, in the College Football Playoff quarterfinals at the Allstate Sugar Bowl in front of a crowd of 57,267 at the Caesars Superdome and a national audience on ESPN.

The game, postponed a day following the deadly terrorist attack on Bourbon Street in the early hours of New Year's Day, started slowly, with neither team doing much on offense in a scoreless first quarter. Gunner Stockton, making his first career start at quarterback, completed his first seven passes, helping the Bulldogs to an early 3-0 lead, but the Irish scored the final 13 points of the first half.

Stockton, who replaced starter Carson Beck in the second half of the SEC Championship Game after Beck was injured, completed 20 of 32 passes for 234 yards and a touchdown against Notre Dame, but was sacked four times. Georgia's defense held the Irish to 244 yards, while the Bulldog offense gained 296.

Early in the second quarter, Stockton fired deep up the right side to wideout Arian Smith for a 66-yard gain to the Notre Dame 12. However, Georgia was penalized for a sideline infraction on the play that moved the ball back to the Irish 26. The Bulldogs eventually had to settle for a 41-yard Peyton Woodring field goal and a 3-0 lead with 12:14 to play in the half.

It was the first time the Irish had trailed in a game since October. They didn't trail for long, tying the game with 8:20 to go in the second on a 44-yard Mitch Jeter field goal.

With 39 seconds left in the half, Jeter connected on a 48-yard field goal to put the Irish ahead 6-3. On Georgia's first play of the ensuing possession, Stockton was sacked, stripped and Notre Dame recovered the fumble at the UGA 13. The Irish scored on a 13-yard touchdown pass from Riley Leonard to Beaux Collins on the next play, taking a 13-3 lead into halftime.

It was the seventh time that the Bulldogs had trailed at the half this season, with Georgia rallying to win four of those games. The rally got a lot harder after the opening kickoff of the third quarter.

The Irish took full command of the game when Jayden Harrison returned the kickoff 98 yards for a touchdown and a 20-3 lead. Between the end of the first half and the explosive start to the second, the Irish scored 17 points in less than a minute of game action.

Georgia responded in strong fashion, eventually scoring its only touchdown of the game on a 32-yard completion to Cash Jones out of the backfield, cutting the lead to 20-10 with 9:36 left in the third. Notre Dame added to its lead early in the fourth quarter with a 47-yard field goal, making it 23-10 with 13:47 remaining.

Notre Dame used a 13-play drive that lasted more than seven minutes to put the game away.

Coach Kirby Smart said…

"The turnovers are the difference in the game, guys. ... I mean, you should know when you turn it over twice and they return a kickoff for a touchdown, you're not going to have a lot of success."

Cash Jones scored on a 32-yard reception in the third quarter.
